Lagunitas School Trustees Ask 25-Cent Tax Hike

Voters of Lagunitas School District will be asked March 31 to approve for one year a school tax of $2 per $100 assessed valuation, 25 cents more than was levied for the current year.

The decision to hold a tax election was reached by the board last night at a special meeting attended by some 60 persons in Lagunitas School. The vote was unanimous, with all members present.

Supt. Clifford L. Frye said today a $2 rate would be needed to raise local tax requirements of a proposed 1959-60 district budget of $124,463.

If the voters fail to approve the 25-cent hike, the tax rate automatically will revert to 90 cents.

Trustees took no action on the proposed school spending program for next year. The tentative total is exactly $1,000 higher than the current district budget of $123,463.

The proposed budget includes $82,625 for the instructional program, including teacher salaries; $10,950 for general administration, $7,650 for operation of the school plant, a general reserve of $4,000, an undistributed reserve of $7,508 and $398 which the board hopes to carry over from the current budget.

'AUSTERITY BUDGET'
"This is an austerity budget," Frye said. "We are tightening our belts and actually operating on no margin, you might say."

He said estimates indicate $40,480 in local revenue would be needed toward financing the suggested budget, with the balance coming from the state and miscellaneous sources.

As an incentive to teachers to remain with the district, the board is considering the possibility of reducing from 24 to 15 the number of academic units required for advancement to a higher salary range. The district now employs 14 teachers. There are 360 pupils at present, down 30 since the first week of school, but up 12 since Christmas.

DECISION ON LAND
The board voted last night to place the sale of district-owned property in Woodacre, once proposed as a second school site, in the hands of two San Geronimo Valley real estate agencies. No bids on the property were received recently when the board tried to sell for at least $18,500. The figure to be asked for sale through the realty firms will be fixed at the next regular board meeting Feb. 11.

Trustees also named Lagunitas School as the polling place for the May 19 trustee election. The terms of Mrs. A. E. Larson and Leslie S. Stone, board president, will expire this year.

Duckel Named To MacPhee's Post In S.F.

Sherman P. Duckel, San Francisco public works director and part-time Marin resident, today was appointed San Francisco's chief administrative officer.

He succeeds Chester R. MacPhee, who resigned yesterday to climax a long controversy over "conflict of interest."

Mayor George Christopher appointed Duckel, 59-year-old career public servant, to the $24,000-a-year job. He will take office Feb. 1.

Duckel has maintained a summer home in Black Point for 35 years and spends most of the summer and weekends there. He built the house, at 15 Manzanita avenue, himself. Building is his hobby.

MacPhee yesterday resigned the job he had held since last June 30 because of what he called "unjustified harassment" over his real estate holdings.

Christopher asked Duckel yesterday whether he would accept the city's top appointive job and promised to supply a list of his financial interests for investigation by city attorney Dion Holm.

Councilman Sauer In S.F. Hospital

San Rafael City Councilman Joseph F. Sauer is in Franklin Hospital, San Francisco, undergoing tests and examinations to determine the cause of an intestinal ailment.

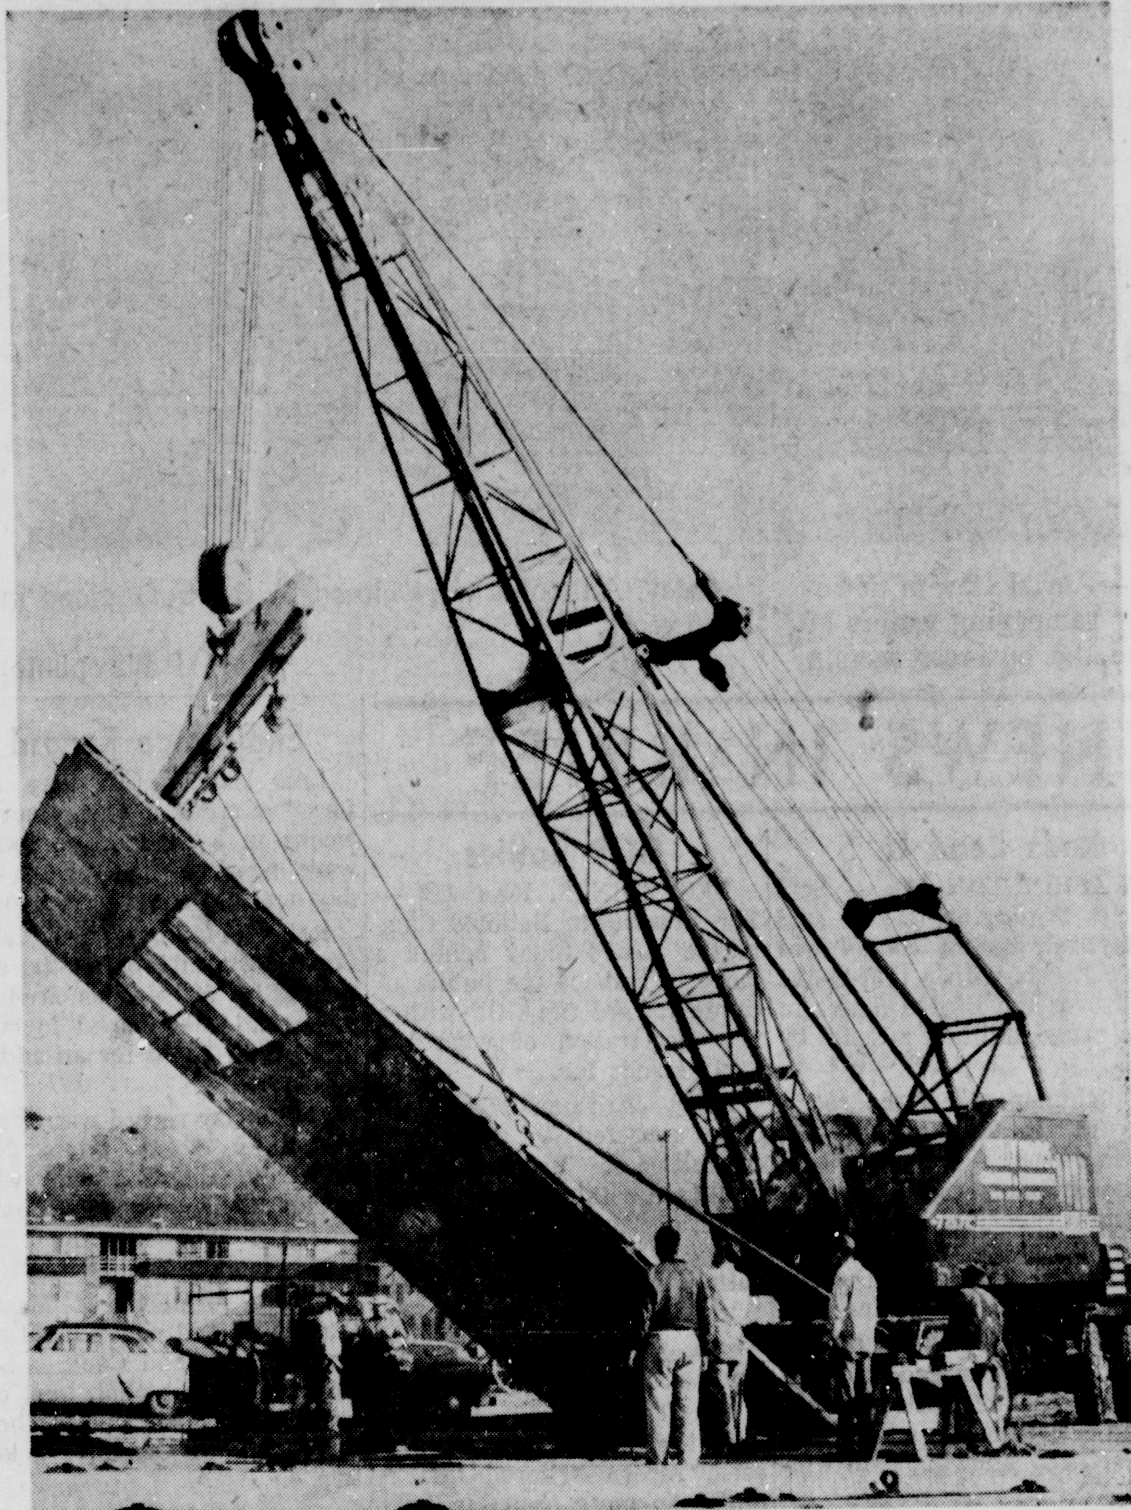

Mrs. Sauer said doctors hoped to know today whether an operation would be necessary. Sauer entered the hospital last Sunday.

HEFTY LIFT FOR STORES-TO-BE

A huge 70-ton crane was brought in today to tilt up 32-ton sections of concrete walls in construction by Ghilotti Brothers of a new commercial building in San Rafael's Monte-

Peninsula Land Group Reactivates

The first step toward possible acquisition of Tiburon Peninsula land for park and recreation use was taken Wednesday night when the long-inactive Tiburon Peninsula Land Conservation Committee was reactivated in a meeting at Reed School.

"We are investigating legislation amending the public resources code which might make it possible to form a small regional park district," said newly elected chairman Philip W. Leslie.

Leslie appointed David A. Ross of the Belvedere Recreation Commission for liaison with the land conservation group. Mrs. William Newman will represent the committee on the county recreation commission when it is formed, Leslie said.

Meetings will be held the third Wednesday of each month, the next one scheduled for Feb. 18 at 8 p.m. at Reed School, Leslie announced.

San Anselmo Tot Hurt By Car In Driveway

A 16-month-old San Anselmo girl suffered a fracture of the left leg yesterday when she was struck by a car backing out of a driveway by her home at 20 Buena Vista avenue.

Police said Ruth Helen Karuzis, daughter of Airman and Mrs. Leonard Karuzis, was hit at 3:40 p.m. by an auto driven by Juanita Tolson, 17, of 19 Buena Vista. Miss Tolson was not cited.

The injured girl was reported in satisfactory condition today at Letterman Army Hospital, San Francisco. Her father is stationed at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Police said Miss Tolson let Mrs. Karuzis out of her car and started backing out of the driveway when an unidentified passerby shouted, "You ran over the baby!"

Mrs. Karuzis heard the shout from inside her home and ran out screaming, "My baby!"

The child was examined at San Rafael General Hospital before being transferred to Letterman. Police said there were tire marks on the broken leg. Miss Tolson told officers she did not know the child was behind the car and did not feel the vehicle strike her.

Rain, Snow Due In North State

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Weather Bureau said rain is likely tomorrow in Northern California as far south as Santa Rosa and Chico, with snow in the high mountains.

The central third of the state will be cloudy.

The five-day forecast through next Wednesday said two or three days of rain is expected in the northern counties, and one or two days of precipitation is likely in the northern section of Central California.

Light to moderate snow is expected tomorrow and tomorrow night in the Mt. Shasta area, followed by partial clearing Sunday.

Hayden's Sausalito Yacht Disappears

Film star Sterling Hayden's yacht Wanderer was somewhere out of Sausalito today—far out, with Sterling and his four children among those aboard.

Nobody, except those on the yacht, knew where it was.

Hayden sailed from Sausalito Sunday, supposedly headed for Santa Barbara. But his former wife, Mrs. Betty Ann de Noon, has asked the Coast Guard to search for the schooner on suspicion the movie luminary was headed for the South Seas, in defiance of a court order. With a fair wind all the way, the Wanderer should have made Santa Barbara Tuesday. Mrs. de Noon's attorney said.

A Santa Barbara pilot told United Press International he flew 100 miles up the coast yesterday morning and did not sight Hayden's vessel.

Hayden, veteran sailor, purchased and refitted the Wanderer especially for his "dream voyage" to the South Seas. It was learned that before leaving Sunday, he ordered an extra 100 pounds of meat, nearly 30 gallons of milk and an extra 50 gallons of fresh water stowed aboard.

Including himself, there are eight men, five women and seven children aboard. The extra supplies would not be necessary for the three-day trip down the California coast.

Last week, Hayden was awarded custody of the children in a bitterly contested battle with his former wife. The children are Christian, 10; Thor, 9; Gretchen, 8, and Matthew, 6.

However, Judge Emil Gumpert of Los Angeles Superior Court, denied Hayden the right to take the children on the voyage. Gumpert said he thought the ship, which was built in 1893, was too old and that members of the crew lacked sailing experience.

Hayden told United Press International before the decision was handed down that he had gone into hock "up to my eyeballs" in a film-making venture to "do something honest" for television.

He said he had mortgaged everything but the ship to make the trip, which would include stops at Tahiti, the Marquesas, the Thursday Islands, Bangkok and Hong Kong.

"If I can't make the voyage," he added, "I'll lose the ship too, and even my socks."

And the children?
"Where I go, they go," he said.

Governor 'Has Plans' For N. Bay Aqueduct

I-J Special Report
SACRAMENTO — Gov. Edmund G. Brown said today that he "has plans" for the North Bay Aqueduct to carry water from the Sacramento Delta to Marin, Sonoma, Napa and Solano counties. He said that "they may be added to my program before the end of this session."

The governor, who yesterday failed to mention the North Bay project in his water message to the Legislature, declared at a press conference that the North Bay "is an area where we may come in with a supplemental program, because this is an area in which we move."

He gave no indication as to what his plans might be.

Yesterday, Harvey O. Banks, director of the Department of Water Resources, said he "did not think the governor would object" to including funds for purchasing rights of way for the aqueduct in his program.

The governor this morning also touched briefly on a proposal by Southern Californians that they take water from the Eel River in Mendocino County to the southland. (Rep. Clement W. Miller of Corte Madera was quoted in Washington yesterday as looking favorably on such a project.)

Brown declared the present supply available for Southern California is enough under present growth trends to "last until 1981 without Eel River water."

He said the whole state should stick to one plan for developing water. "The alternative of Balkanizing into separate water areas doesn't make sense to me," he declared.

Mill Valley Sues To Obtain Land

Mill Valley went to court today to condemn Marin Municipal Water District land next to the city hall for use as a municipal parking lot.

City Atty. Thomas C. Nelson filed the condemnation action in Marin Superior Court to get a court decision on the value of the property.

The city council last Dec. 17 decided to file the friendly suit against Marin Municipal Water District.

Hallinan, Family To Tour Russia

Soviet Russian and European criminal law relating to narcotics addiction and homosexuality will be studied by attorney Vincent Hallinan of Ross this summer during a three-month foreign tour he is planning to take with his wife, Vivian, and their six sons.

Hallinan, whose left wing activities once prevented him from obtaining federal clearance to visit Canada, has obtained a passport to visit the Soviet Union and a number of European countries.

The former Independent Progressive Party candidate for president said he and his family plan to fly to Russia June 20. They will do their touring by auto. In Russia, they will linger in Moscow, Leningrad and the Black Sea region.

Hallinan said he is starting a movement to make California laws on narcotics addiction and homosexuality "more realistic."

He plans to study Soviet Russia's program of giving narcotics "shots" to addicts as a means of ending illegal dope traffic. He said he understands the program has been a complete success.

Principal opponents of such a program for this country, Hallinan said, are "the enforcement officers, who don't want to lose their jobs."

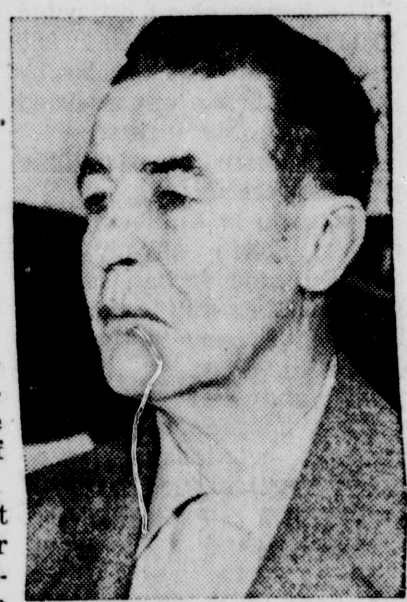

FREIGHTER RUNS AGROUND OFF MARIN

The Greek-registered freighter Evanthia, loaded with scrap iron for the Orient, ran aground briefly today off the Marin shore, but later was refloated under her own power.

The ship, which had fuelled at Martinez and been anchored off Paradise Cove, ran aground on Southampton shoals, between Richmond and Racon Strait, as she started to make for the open sea.

The vessel is owned by Ryan Steamship and Trading Co. of New York and chartered to Terrylin Shipping Co. of Oakland, but is of Greek registry, her agents, Williams-Desmond Co. of San Francisco, reported.

Her announced destination is Japan.

ment officers, who don't want to lose their jobs."

He said that while serving two federal prison terms in recent years he was told by fellow prisoners that dope peddlers take on the job of selling narcotics so they can obtain supplies for themselves. Giving such persons free "shots," he said, could cripple the illegal dope trade.

As for homosexuality, Hallinan said "a lot of work on the problem" is being done in European countries to treat it more realistically under the law.

The attorney said he plans to do some writing on both subjects after his return from Europe. At present he is taking private lessons in the Russian language.

He said his wife also intends to do some studying during their forthcoming tour, concentrating on the field of child psychology as well as the subject of "illegal abortions and other sociological matters."

The Hallinans will be accompanied by their sons Patrick (Butch), 24; Terance (Kay), 22; Michael (Tuffy), 20; Matthew (Dynamite), 18; Conn (Flash), 16, and Danny, 10. Danny has no nickname.

Hallinan served federal prison sentences of five months for contempt of court in the Harry Bridges perjury trial and 14 months for income tax evasion.

Big Area Flooded In Pennsylvania

PITTSBURGH, Pa. (AP)—A flood that caused millions of dollars damage in Pennsylvania rolled down the Ohio River Valley today with diminishing force.

In areas west and south of Pittsburgh the crest swept past at lower than predicted levels and with relatively slight damage. East Liverpool, Ohio, reported the worst was eight feet above the city's theoretical flood stage but damage was only minor.

Many huge freight-carrying barges, ripped from their moorings, streamed down the river on the ice-choked tide. Some sank. Some banged into bridge pillars with shuddering impact. One snapped a guy wire of the suspension bridge at Wheeling, W. V.

Worst Pennsylvania flood spots this morning were far up on the Ohio headwaters, at Meadville, Pa., and at Sharon, Pa.

A two-mile long ice jam choked French Creek, backing record high waters into Meadville. Fire officials aiding in the rescue work said 1,500 were homeless. Roads to the south were blocked.

Residents of Sharon, 45 miles northwest of Pittsburgh, found the heart of their city under water for the second successive morning. The Shenango River which overflowed Wednesday night stood three feet deep in parts of a 10-block area of the business district. Some 800 persons were housed in emergency shelter or with friends.

Downstream at New Castle, Pa., the Shenango was receding a half inch an hour after cresting at midnight.

Far to the east in Pennsylvania, rescue workers sought to stem the flow of the swollen Susquehanna River into a mine at Pittston where 12 miners still were missing.

Ice was moving out from the upper reaches of the Susquehanna and flood threats appeared to be diminishing.

The flood crest of the Allegheny and Ohio had rolled past Pittsburgh without causing serious difficulty.

Ohio Battles Swollen Rivers

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The flood-swollen Scioto River hit 32.6 feet at Chillicothe today, three feet above predictions. About one-third of the 163-year-old city was under water as the Scioto went 15½ feet above flood stage.

The homes of an estimated 10,000 of Chillicothe's 27,000 residents were affected, but by 9 a.m. the Scioto was reported down some four inches.

There were reports three persons were missing.

Upstream at Circleville, the muddy Scioto already had dropped nine inches, as the flood made its way to the Ohio River on its way to the Gulf of Mexico.

Thousands of persons throughout the state were homeless but today's battle-ground apparently centered at Chillicothe.

Sandbags and a levee at Chillicothe gave way in sections early today, allowing the water to seep through and over the city's east end. A state of emergency was declared by Mayor Nicholas H. Holmes.

Other communities downstream braced themselves for the flood crests that have already brought death and destruction and untold misery to tens of thousands upstream.

At last 13 persons have died so far from the floods, and maybe more.

Massive Cold Wave Follows Storm In East

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

A massive cold wave knifed across the eastern half of the country today in the wake of winter's most severe and destructive weather, which left a heavy toll of dead and homeless.

Storms abated, and floods in some areas appeared easing. But the punishing blows from the violent midwinter snow, sleet, and rain storms and floods left many sections staggering.

Conditions were in the disaster stage in some of the flood-stricken regions.

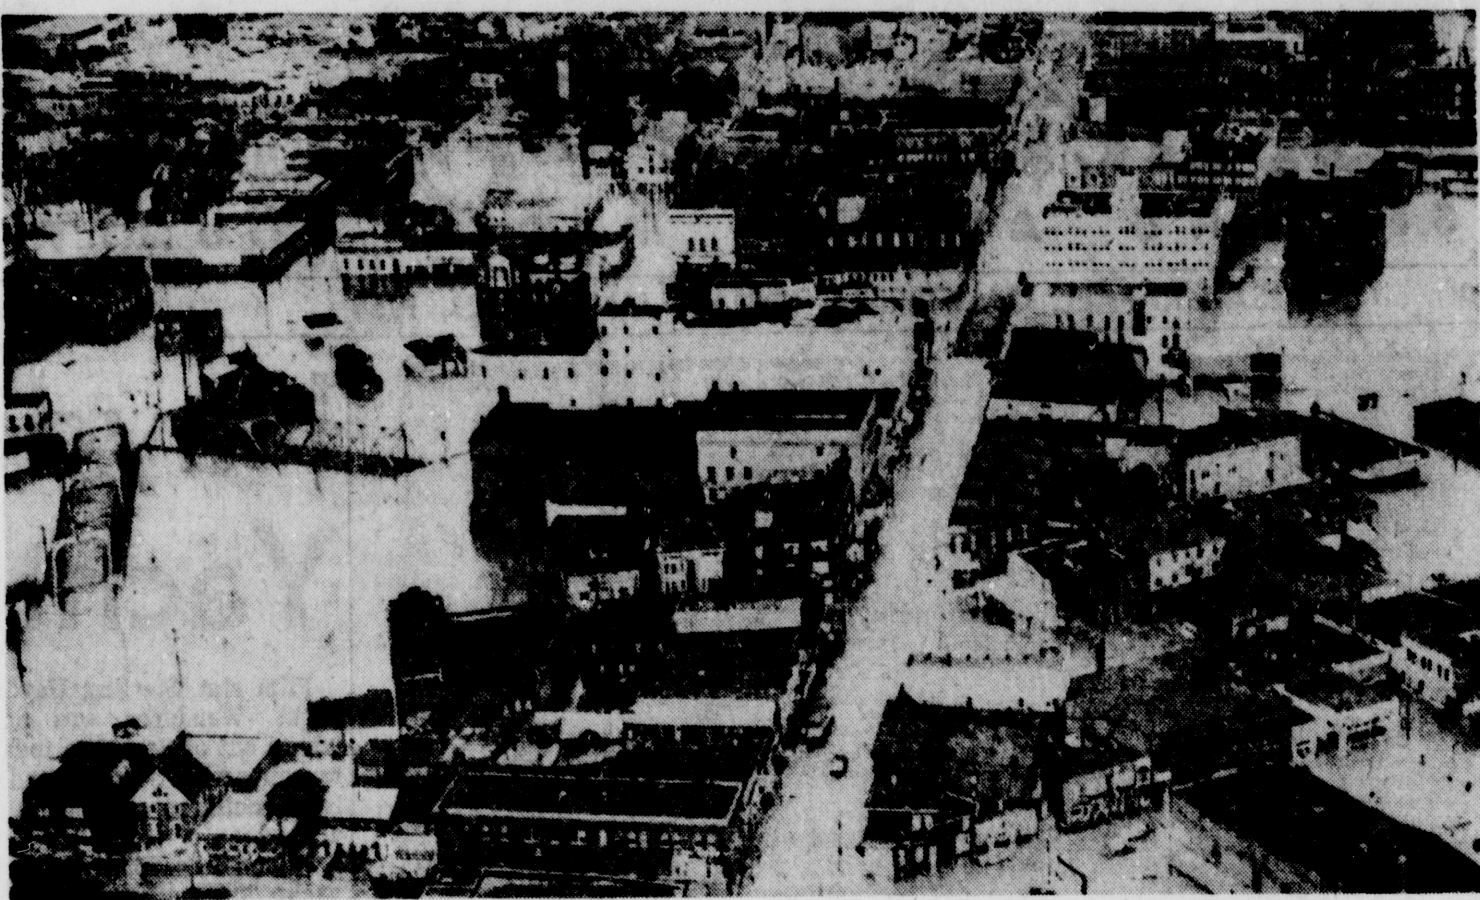

At least 88 persons were dead from floods and other effects of the storms in 14 states from New Mexico to the Eastern Seaboard.

Damage to property was in the millions of dollars.

Although the influx of cold weather appeared lessening the flood danger in some of the five states, thousands remained homeless. The cold also added to the suffering.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Weather Warfare

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-N.M.) says weather warfare may be more effective than missiles in bringing a nation to its knees.

"Weather warfare could be so applied that the operator of the modification could not only damage his opponent but escape undamaged himself — something that might not be said of multimegaton thermonuclear blasts," Anderson said.

He addressed a symposium of weather modification last night.

Infant Kidnapped

NEW YORK (AP) — A woman kidnaped a 23-day-old child from a West Side apartment Thursday. It was the city's second baby abduction this year.

Police and the FBI had teamed up in an all-night search of the Manhattan area where the child lived.

Missing from his family apartment was John Tavaraz, whose mother had been sent off on a wild-goose apartment hunt by a woman she met just two days ago.

The grief-stricken father broadcast a radio and TV appeal for the baby's return.

Power Baby Born

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Tyrone Power's widow, Deborah, gave birth to a son Thursday—two months, seven days after Power died of a heart attack while making a movie in Madrid.

The baby, born at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, weighed five pounds, 12 ounces. He was named Tyrone.

Reds Lead U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) said today "an honest count" will show Russia with a four-to-one lead over the United States in long-range, military missiles by 1961.

Symington, air force secretary in the Truman administration, spoke out after defense secretary Neil H. McElroy told reporters he does not believe Russia has an intercontinental ballistic missile ready for operation against this country "at this time."

Symington charged that the Eisenhower administration instead of closing the missile gap is "actually allowing it to widen."

Mikoyan Home

MOSCOW (AP) — First Dep. Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan returned home today from his visit to the United States.

A group headed by Dep. Foreign Minister V. V. Kuznetsov greeted him at the airport.

Mikoyan declared in Copenhagen last night that everybody in America wants the cold war to stop except the State Department.

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—When the children spilled a big container of bubble bath powder all over the floor, Mrs. Vernon Reed came along with her vacuum cleaner to clean it up.

Her cleaner is one of those that filters everything through a tank of water. Although it has been cleaned out three times since then the machine still whips up a frightful froth every time its turned on.

GOP Rallies

DES MOINES, Iowa (AP) — The Republican National Committee rallied today behind a move to reshape the public attitude toward the GOP with a new declaration of what the party stands for.

Party chairman Meade Alcorn expected to appoint a committee of prominent Republicans within a week or two to draft the statement. He hoped it would finish the job within three months.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon was reported to be among those who might be invited to participate.

If the project should succeed, Alcorn believed that it might do more than anything else to solve what he believed to be one of the party's biggest current problems. This is to persuade voters that the GOP is not a "big business" party.

Trains To Quit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Southern Pacific Railroad today asked the Interstate Commerce Commission for authority to discontinue eight passenger trains in California.

The railroad proposes to discontinue the following:

Numbers 226, 241, 247 and 248 between Oakland and Sacramento; numbers 59 and 60, the "west coast" between Los Angeles and Sacramento; and numbers 155 and 156 between San Francisco and San Jose.

The railroad told the commission it suffers an estimated out-of-pocket cost of $1,451,000 a year from operation of these trains. Other public transportation is available between these points.

Endurance Record

LAS VEGAS (AP)—Two air force veterans aloft for seven weeks in a light plane today were nearing the world's 50-day non-stop endurance record.

Robert Timm, 32, and John Cook, 33, would break the old record by 50 seconds at 4:07 p.m., said they hoped to continue their flight for an added 10 days.

The 50-day record was established by Texas pilots Jim Heth and Bill Burkhardt who circled their home state, Louisiana and Oklahoma for 1,200 hours, ending last Sept. 21.

Timm, formerly of Mason City, Iowa, and now a hotel executive here, and Cook, a Los Angeles airlines pilot, took off from McCarran Field in their single-engined Cessna 172 last Dec. 4.

Living Costs Dip

WASHINGTON (AP) — Living costs dipped two-tenths of one per cent in December — their first decline since August.

Lower prices for food, automobiles and clothing, overbalanced increases in rents, other housing items, medical care and other consumer costs.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics price index declined to 123.7 per cent of the 1947-49 average, the base.

In reporting this today, the bureau noted the index stood 1.7 per cent higher than December, 1957.

Hope Fades For 12 Men Lost In Flooded Mine

PITTSSTON, Pa. (AP) — Hope faded today for 12 miners trapped by icy waters in an anthracite mine after the swollen Susquehanna River breached a hole in a tunnel below the river bed and swirled into the honeycomb of diggings.

Under the unwritten law of the coal mine fields, "never leave a buddy down below," rescuers spared no effort or expense in a frantic effort to reach them. Their only hope was that they managed to crawl into air pockets above the still rising water level.

The volunteer rescue crews, directed by federal, state and company experts, dug through the night in remote shafts and tunnels in efforts to break through to some still-dry subterranean corridors where the missing may have found refuge.

Forty-four of the miners working deep underground managed to reach safety after the ice-clogged river drained through a hole 20 feet in diameter into the quarter-mile long tunnel like an emptying bathtub yesterday. They were greeted with whoops of joy by relatives and friends standing vigil around the numerous entrances to mine shafts.

The disaster hit the anthracite community hard. Unlike other mine tragedies of previous years, it caused many veteran miners to vow they never again would go underground. The financial loss also may further cripple the anthracite fields already depressed because of the decline in demand for hard coal. The flood waters kept pouring into the inter-linked mine shafts, tunnels and slopes, reaching some diggings eight miles away.

One mine engineer estimated it would take two years to pump out the water, even if such a huge project could be financed.

Leaders of the rescue workers said they would try to arrange the hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of items and materials dumped into flooding tunnel in an effort to form a makeshift dam.

Fusselman Voted To Deny Permit

The Independent-Journal reported incorrectly last week that Supervisor William D. Fusselman abstained when the Marin County Board of Supervisors voted to deny a sign permit sought by developer John Kenney.

Fusselman joined his colleagues in a 5-0 vote denying a permit for a 300-square-foot sign advertising Kenney's Terra Linda Oaks subdivision. Kenney wanted to place the sign on Highway 101 at the entrance to Terra Linda.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"I don't want to talk about birthdays," Mack Sennett said grumpily. He grudgingly said he was observing his 74th. The record books say he's 75, but there's still enough ham left in his rugged frame to fudge a year.

Even though he was passing the three-quarter century mark, he shunned celebration. He'd much rather talk about the thing he knows best, comedy.

202 Autopsies Conducted By Coroner In '58

Marin County Coroner Frank J. Keaton conducted 202 autopsies last year, or a 100 per cent autopsy of all bodies which come to the coroner's attention. Of 807 deaths in the county for 1958, one-fourth, or 202, were investigated and autopsied by the coroner. Any death with no doctor in attendance for the previous 48 hours becomes a coroner's case.

The coroner held only two inquests during 1958. One was in April for the death of a Fairfax fireman who was swept into a creek while on duty. The other came in September for a 17-year-old boy who was accidentally shot at Bon Tempe Lake in August, while he and his companions were target shooting.

No inquest was held in the bludgeon murder of San Rafael liquor store owner Edwin Norbert Hart, 54, who was killed in daylight inside his San Rafael store last Aug. 9. The murder is unsolved.

Coroner Keaton explained it is the coroner's prerogative to determine whether he should hold an inquest. In the Hart murder case, Keaton said, there was no doubt it was murder, and he felt that an inquest would merely cost the county money without serving a useful purpose.

Apparently no one saw the crime committed. Those who were first on the scene were questioned extensively and have given statements in the form of signed affidavits, Keaton said. "All the records that could have been taken are preserved for future use," he declared.

For some reason, the coroner had the most bodies on his hands during the month of August last year. In that one month, 29 bodies were turned over to him. The other months ranged from 12 to 19 cases.

Miller Pledges Support For New Housing Bill Planned By Alabamian

By HARRISON HUMPHRIES
WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) today promised his support for new housing legislation proposed by Rep. Albert Rains (D-Ala.).

"I believe it is the best that is going to come along in the present session of Congress," he said in an interview.

Miller, new representative from California's 1st District, has been assigned to the Banking and Currency Committee which handles housing legislation. He hopes to become a member of the housing subcommittee headed by Rains.

Miller said he sought the committee assignment because of the importance of housing construction to his congressional district.

Lumber, he said, comprises almost 85 per cent of the industry in the northern part of the district, and home building is major industry in fast-growing Marin, Sonoma and Napa Counties.

The emergency housing bill of 1958 had an immediate and almost miraculous effect in the 1st District, he said.

"Without it, I doubt that we would have achieved the recovery we have had," he said.

Miller said the Rains legislation is needed this year to sustain and increase federal assistance in the housing field.

The Rains bill would increase FHA insurance authorizations, increase mortgage limits, lower down payments to new home buyers in the middle price range, lengthen repayment periods, authorize 35,000 units of low rent public housing annually, provide 500 million dollars a year for slum clearance grants, increase the college housing loan program and authorize a new loan program for housing for the elderly.

Miller said he was aware that the new housing legislation would not satisfy everyone in the construction industry.

"When you get 10 builders together, you get 10 different ideas about what should be done," he asserted.

"If the building and construction industry could agree on what it wants, I think it is likely that Congress would provide it. Since they can't agree, we are going to have to do something for them in any case."

In his first two weeks in Congress, Miller has introduced a half-dozen bills. He is preparing drafts of others.

One of his first measures was to change the name of Petaluma Creek to Petaluma River. Another is to designate the reservoir behind Coyote Dam as Lake Mendocino.

Miller said the Petaluma River bill was requested by Petaluma and its chamber of commerce to give the navigable stream greater emphasis in efforts to attract new industry to the area.

The Lake Mendocino bill was requested by Mendocino County officials.

Miller also introduced as a co-sponsor an aid to education bill proposed by Sen. James E. Murray (D-Mont.) and Rep. Lee Metcalf (D-Mont.).

The bill provides for federal allotments to the states, on the basis of school age population, for construction of school facilities and for payment of teacher salaries. The federal assistance would be limited to $25 per school child in the first year and increase to $100 after the third year.

"All known statistics show incontrovertible need for school assistance," Miller said. "Beginning with the President's Conference on Education in 1955, each report indicates we are falling further and further behind in school construction, teacher strength and quality of education."

Miller is preparing legislation designed to meet another educational problem. He proposes to reactivate the Civilian Conservation Corps, or a similar organization, to siphon off from the high schools individuals who for various reasons no longer belong in school.

Under his plan, the schools would certify boys, beginning at age 16, to the CCC for a school year.

Miller said the plan might siphon off from the schools the bottom 2 to 3 per cent of students most likely to cause difficulty.

"It is not discipline," he said. "We have youth camps for that. Most of them need a physical release. Trade schools are not the answer."

Miller is also working on a proposal to improve the administration of what he termed "lesser recreational areas."

He said there should be a federal agency, possibly in the national park service, to administer recreation facilities around federal reservoirs and other areas which do not measure up to National Park status. He mentioned Point Reyes in western Marin County as an example of the type of recreation area he had in mind.

Total Civilian Employment Up

SACRAMENTO (UP)—The state Department of Employment today announced an increase in unemployed persons during December and said total civilian employment for California soared to a record.

The department said in a monthly report to the governor that the December employment figure rose 70,000 persons over previous figures to a record 5,713,000 persons.

Unemployment for December was 5,000 greater than in 1957 with some 317,000 persons out of work. The agency said the increase in employment was credited to the prolonged dry spell, which permitted continuation of outdoor activities during most of the month.

THE PARENTS' CORNER

Warning To Teeners' Parents: Marrying Season Is Ahead

Marrying season is ahead. More young kids than ever will stand before the parson and say "I do." Many of their marriages will go bad. Let's look.

About this time each year the marrying fad hits some high schools. One couple will marry. Then another, and another. Soon they're doing it all over the place. Even good, responsible youngsters are swept up. Parents who should know better give their consent. I checked in a midwest high school last June. One-third of the graduating girls had gotten married in the preceding six months. In the adjoining school there only were two marriages. See how the fad works?

Some early marriages turn out well. The young husband and wife grow up fast. They are able to carry the load of wage earning, homemaking, child rearing. But they are the exceptions. Usually the kids who marry too young live in a dream world for a while. Up on cloud seven. Then they wake up. The young husband rebels against humdrum work, work, work. The young wife finds she's miserably tied down. Debts mount. A baby arrives, and multiplies the strains. They fight like cats and dogs.

Some of the couples resort to separating or divorce. Others to drinking and chasing. And still others to lives of endless desperation. A surprising number of the couples turn against their parents. They excuse themselves for the mess they've created. They tell their folks that they should have been more strict with them. They say it is all their fault.

If you have vulnerable teenagers at home, be careful. If their friends start marrying, be doubly careful. Teach them. Guide them. Don't give consent to an unwise marriage. Ultimately they'll thank you.

READERS' FORUM

F.L. "Should 18-year-olds be allowed to vote? I understand there's a movement to let them. They seem too childish to me."

REPLY. Maybe I'm wrong. But I favor votes for 18-year-olds. I believe they'd be as mature about voting as their elders are.

Egan Improving

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP)—Gradual improvement was reported early today in the condition of Gov. William Egan of Alaska.

Egan, 44, remained on the critical list, however, and doctors said it still would be a few days before his full recovery is assured.

The Democratic governor underwent emergency surgery Tuesday for a paralysis of the abdomen and a bowel blockage, an aftermath of a gall bladder operation in Juneau, Alaska, Jan. 6.

Two Pedestrians Collide; One Hurt

Two pedestrians collided on a Mill Valley path last evening, and one of them went to a hospital with a fractured hip.

Vincent L. Clemente, 26, a Novato High School teacher who lives at 126 Evergreen avenue, Mill Valley, was walking along a path near his home.

Along came Otto Lindskog, 73, of 328 Montford avenue, walking in the opposite direction.

They collided. Lindskog was knocked to the ground.

Clemente called for aid. The Mill Valley Fire Department sent an ambulance, which took Lindskog to San Rafael General Hospital.

There, it was found his left hip was broken. He underwent surgery last night.

In good condition today at the hospital, Lindskog told sheriff's officers he had only been home a short time after a previous hospitalization—for fracture of the same hip.

Trio Hunted Here Caught In San Jose

Marin residents, especially those in Homestead Valley, can sleep more easily, starting tonight.

Three reform school escapees from Oregon, who vanished into the Mill Valley fog Tuesday, were captured in San Jose yesterday without a struggle when they ran out of money.

One of the youths, Harvey Garrison, 17, had telephoned home to his mother in Oregon asking her to wire $15. The mother called police. When Garrison and Ronald Hubbard, 17, walked into the telegraph office to pick up the money, they walked into the arms of the law.

Thomas Harold, 16, was later picked up in a downtown hotel room. The fourth youth, Alvin Lee Lasley, 15, of Nyssa, Ore., got no farther than Mill Valley. He lost his shoe in the getaway attempt in Mill Valley and was nabbed when he came looking for the shoe.

Marin residents had been jittery all week when the captured Lasley told police the other three were armed with a .25 caliber automatic with five extra clips, loaded.

San Jose police made no mention of any weapons found on the youths.

3 Boys Damage School In Novato

Three boys from Hill Street School in Novato climbed the roof of West Novato School Wednesday night and damaged and defaced the building, sheriff's deputies reported today.

The three, aged 12, 13 and 14, were caught by the janitor Wednesday night and chased away. The janitor later found that lost clothing left at the school had been thrown on top of the roof, and the tar paper on the roof had been torn loose. Windows of the classrooms were smeared with filth.

The janitor notified Principal Donald Frederick Wineland, who called the sheriff's office yesterday afternoon.

Sheriff's Deputy Harold Goerndt said the three have been suspended from school for a week. They admitted the vandalism.

Public Tour Tomorrow Of Mill Valley Schools

Mrs. Edmond Gross, Old Mill School Parent-Teacher Assn. president, said today the public is invited to join a tour of seven schools in the Mill Valley School District tomorrow, starting at 10 a.m. at Old Mill School.

The tour is to inspect school buildings and classroom facilities and to gather firsthand information about schools. Members of the group will take their own sandwiches. Coffee will be served by the Old Mill P.T.A.

Night Tests Of Noisy Jets To Continue

Night testing of jet engines at Hamilton Air Force Base will continue indefinitely, a base information officer reported today.

The noisy jets have been audible over a wide area of North Marin. A base restriction, however, prevents testing after 11 p.m., the spokesman said.

The testing is being done on F104 Starfighter engines, to bring them up to combat readiness, said the spokesman. A new test cell, expected to muffle the testing noise, is under construction at the base but will not be completed for about two months.

Firemen's Assn. Elects Marinites

William H. Lane of Fairfax and W. R. Meagor Jr. of San Anselmo last night were elected officers of the Redwood Empire Firemen's Assn. at a meeting at the Kentfield fire house.

Lane was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the association while Meagor was elected first vice president. Jack Lennon of Sonoma was elected president.

Committee reports and a crab chopino dinner were the major activities of the meeting. Kentfield Fire Chief John R. McLeran and his regulars and volunteers were hosts for the quarterly meeting.

Harvey Gruber, vice president of the California Firemen's Assn. was the installing officer.

Mill Valleyan Unhurt As Car Strikes Pole

Faine Waddell Wray, 20, of Mill Valley, escaped injury last night when his car ran off Reed street in Homestead and struck a utility pole.

The California Highway Patrol said Wray's northbound vehicle was a total wreck. The 9:15 p.m. mishap caused a power blackout at 34 Reed street. Wray was cited for speeding.

OBITUARIES

Rites Slated For Sister Mary Petra

A Solemn Mass will be celebrated for Sister Mary Petra, O.P., at the Dominican Convent Chapel in San Rafael tomorrow at 10 a.m. Committal will be in St. Dominic's Cemetery, Benicia, Solano County.

Sister M. Petra, a former instructor at College of Marin and Dominican College, died in St. Joseph's Hospital, Stockton, Wednesday after long illness.

She was born in Martinsville, Ind., daughter of the late John and Jeannette Fuselman. She attended schools in Medford, Ore., then studied at the University of California, where she received her bachelor's and master's degrees in political science and history.

She received a doctorate in education from Teachers College at Columbia University. She taught in Oregon and California high schools, but the greater part of her teaching career was spent at the local junior college.

She was also on the summer session faculties at Oregon State Teachers College and San Francisco College for Women.

After entering Dominican Convent in 1950, Sister M. Petra became associate professor of history at the college, a position she held until illness forced her to retire in 1957.

Mrs. Chaterdon Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Elizabeth Chaterdon, a resident of Novato for more than 34 years, died last night at a local hospital after a heart attack yesterday. She was 85.

Mrs. Chaterdon, who had been afflicted with arthritis for many years, entered a San Rafael convalescent home two weeks ago, where she suffered the attack yesterday.

The widow of Bert Chaterdon, she is survived by a son, Ralph, of New York City, and a sister, Alice Guttridge of Vancouver, B.C.

Mrs. Chaterdon was a member of the Novato Presbyterian Church and had been active in the Presbyterian Women's Assn. for several years.

Funeral arrangements are pending at the Redwood Chapel Funeral Home, Novato.

Visitor From Hawaii Dies

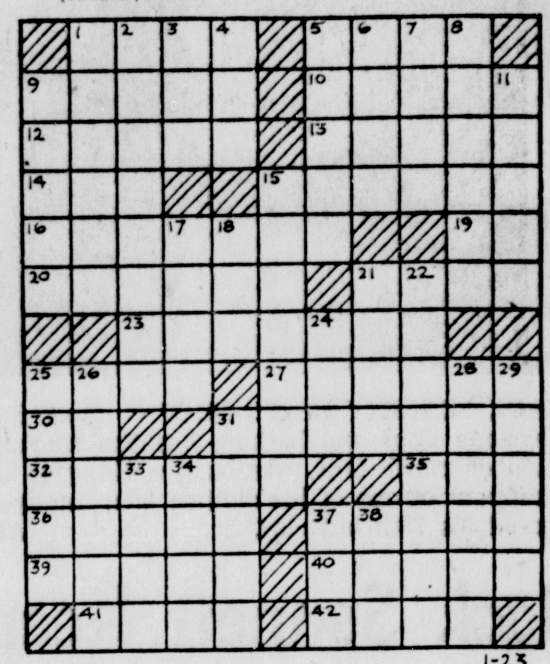

Mrs. Rosalie Hopper, 48, a visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Delmar G. Kimmell at 4 Tamal Vista drive, Corte Madera, for the past month, died of pneumonia last night in a local hospital.

A native and resident of Honolulu, Hawaii, Mrs. Hopper had been in the county about a month. Her husband, Feuson Hopper of Honolulu, survives.

Funeral services and interment will be in Diamond Head Cemetery, Honolulu, with Keaton's Mortuary, San Rafael, handling local arrangements.

SUPERSONIC AIRLINER OF FUTURE?

Here are drawings of three views of a hypothetical ramjet powered transport which Roy E. Marquardt, president of Marquardt Aircraft Co.,

Jet In 5-Hour Alaska-Florida Record Flight

ELGIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (UPI)—An Air Force F105 Thunderchief flew 3,850 miles from Alaska to Florida yesterday in five hours and 27 minutes.

Since Alaska is now a state, it was the longest non-stop flight over the continental United States in the record books. The Air Force said the plane proved its capabilities as an all-weather craft for use by the Tactical Air Command.

The fighter-bomber, flown by Capt. Billy B. White, 30, of Caddo Mills, Tex., averaged 700 miles an hour. It was refueled in flight over Edmonton, Canada, and Omaha, Neb.

The flight time was measured from the time the plane began its test maneuver over Eielson Air Force Base, Alaska, until it arrived at this northwest Florida base.

The Air Force said the flight was staged to test the plane's capability of making the transition from one extreme of weather to another. It has previously been undergoing cold-weather tests in Alaska.

The Thunderchief is 63 feet long and its swept wings are 34 feet. The power plant is a single Pratt and Whitney J75 engine providing 15,000 pounds of thrust.

Baker University at Baldwin, Kan., received $100 from Abraham Lincoln to erect a building on the campus in 1864.

Amateur Painters To Have Show

The ninth annual exhibition of oils, watercolors, pastels and paintings in other media by Marin "Sunday painters" will open Feb. 2 at the Torrance Gallery, 341 San Anselmo avenue, San Anselmo.

Proceeds from the $1 entry fee charged each exhibitor will benefit the Hearing Society of Marin.

The exhibition is open to non-professional artists who live in Marin County. Each artist may submit up to three paintings in any one medium. All oils must be framed and provided with screw eyes and wires. All abstracts must have an indication of which way is "up." Entries will be accepted next week Tuesday through Friday from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., and on Friday until 8 p.m.

Three award winners and three honorable mention winners will be selected by Dorner Schueler of Fairfax, Othello Michetti of San Anselmo and Dr. Robert Mills of San Rafael.

A reception will be held at the gallery for the exhibiting artists and their friends on Feb. 6 between 7 and 9 p.m.

DEFIANT DEFENDENT — Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, on trial before revolutionary tribunal in Havana as a war criminal, grimaced and waved his handcuffed hands defiantly after finishing his testimony. He was convicted and sentenced to death. (AP Wirephoto)

SAYS DEFENDANT KILLED FATHER — Argelio Estrada, 12, points out Sosa as the man who pulled Argelio's father from his home and killed him. The child was one of the few accusers of Sosa who said they were eyewitnesses to his alleged murders.

ACCUSING FINGER — Marin Pacinta Galvez, first witness to testify against Sosa, points accusing finger at him as she identifies him as commander of army troops in her neighborhood in Oriente Province.

MAJOR HEARS SENTENCE — Sosa stands with clasped hands as he hears his death sentence read after his trial. The career army officer was convicted of five counts of murder, homicide, robbery, looting and property damage.

WAR CRIMES TRIAL

Cuba Condemns 1st Defendant

COMBINED AP & UPI

HAVANA — The defendant in Havana's first show-case war crimes trial was convicted just before dawn today and sentenced to death.

A three-man tribunal of Fidel Castro's revolutionary officers found Maj. Jesus Sosa Blanco, 51, a career army officer, guilty on five counts of murder, homicide, robbery, looting and property damage.

The verdict was returned after a trial of almost eight hours and more than four hours of deliberation by the three judges.

CROWD OF 17,000

A crowd of 17,000 shouting, jeering Cubans who had jammed Havana's Sports Palace for the start of the trial had gone home hours before. Only about 300 newsmen and armed, bearded guards from Castro's forces heard the verdict as it was read out in the sports arena.

Sosa's counsel, Capt. Aristides Dacosta, had said he would appeal a conviction to a five-man superior court provided under the new legal code put in effect after dictator Fulgencio Batista's overthrow Jan. 1. The higher court has not yet been named.

REJECTS ARGUMENT

The court rejected the defense argument that the death penalty could not be imposed on Sosa because his crimes were committed before the constitution was amended to permit capital punishment.

The major complained that he was being tried in the atmosphere of the "Roman Coliseum" where early Christians were fed to the lions.

He repeatedly voiced his scorn of the crowd, which hooted and jeered defense requests for evidence or for time to prepare its case.

The trials were to resume at 2 p.m. today with the prosecution of Capt. Pedro Morejon Valdes, second of the "big three" defendants among the 600-odd military prisoners here.

During the marathon trial, the prosecution called more than 50 witnesses to testify to Sosa's crimes. Only a few represented themselves as eyewitnesses, while the others reported threats or hearsay accounts of the major's offenses.

Evidence introduced against

Sosa included his past record, which the prosecution said included prison terms for homicide, forgery of public documents and illegal burial of bodies.

He was accused of guilt or complicity in dozens of murders, some of which were said to have been committed by him and others by men under his command.

At one point, Sosa asked the crowd for silence, saying the conditions of his trial reminded him of the martyrdom of Christians in the Roman Coliseum.

"I am not listening to you (the crowd)," he said. "I am not here to justify myself or to ask for clemency."

"I don't know whether I am on trial in the Roman Coliseum or standing before our Lord Jesus Christ."

The presiding judge supported Sosa's call for silence, ordering the rebel militiamen who were maintaining order in the stadium to eject anyone who made undue noise.

The defendant said he respected the rebel army against which he had fought—"and would fight again if necessary." Then, waving his manacled hands at the crowd, he added:

"I have no respect for them. They are not rebels."

WAR CRIMES TRIBUNAL — This is the three-man tribunal hearing the trials of alleged Cuban "war criminals." From left, Maj. Raul Chibas, treasurer of the revolutionary movement; Maj. Humberto Sori Marin, trial prosecutor and Cuban minister of agriculture, and Maj. Universo Sanchez.

Reed Club To Seek Public Rifle Range For County

The Reed School District Parent-Teacher Club will work with other interested groups for the establishment of a public small bore rifle range in the county, it was decided last night at a membership meeting at Reed School.

The decision followed several weeks of controversy over a proposal by the club's children's activities committee that the organization sponsor a rifle range on the Tiburon Peninsula. Training in safe firearms handling was cited as desirable for peninsula youngsters. Mrs. Erwin Farkas, committee chairman, reported a countywide meeting to consider establishment of a public range will be held under auspices of the Marin Rod and Gun Club on Feb. 2.

The committee felt it is not feasible for the Reed club actually to sponsor a range "but the organization should work for a range to serve all the county," reported Mrs. Farkas.

A motion to sponsor a four-hour junior hunter safety course of instruction in firearms handling was tabled.

No action was taken on a proposal that the organization seek legislation outlawing the sale of guns and ammunition to minors and requiring that children using firearms be accompanied by an adult.

Marin Couple Marks Golden Anniversary

Walter F. and Irene C. Winrott, who lived in Tiburon as newlyweds a half century ago, celebrated their golden wedding Sunday at their home at 205 Morningsun avenue, Mill Valley.

The Winrotts returned to Marin five years ago after 22 years' residence in San Francisco.

Winrott retired Jan. 1 after being employed for more than 20 years by the Pacific Pipe Co. of San Francisco, where he was engineer in charge of agricultural irrigation projects in the western United States, Hawaii and the Philippines. His wife is a descendant of the Carrillo family and a great-grand-niece of Gen. Mario Vallejo.

To help the couple celebrate, their son, Walter Winrott Jr., vice president of Crocker-Anglo National Bank, gave a dinner for them at the Blue Rock Inn in Larkspur. Later there was a reception at the home.

Another son, Clarence Winrott, lives in Arcadia.

Plastic Nail Coming Soon, Rotary Told

A nail made of plastic, stronger than steel, will soon make its appearance in the building industry, the Sausalito Rotary Club was told yesterday by Norville Arant, president of Arant Plastics of Sausalito.

He said plastic materials, such as those used in lightweight coffee cups, are competitive in price and are now reaching a point where some are cheaper than paper.

He was introduced by Aubrey McDermott, vice president of the firm. George Elkington presided.

DEMOS OPEN WAR ON IKE HOUSING BILL

Bigger, Costlier Plan Predicted By Sen. Johnson

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders called 14 witnesses today to counter the Eisenhower administration's appeals for enactment of its own housing program.

The witnesses included spokesmen for the National Housing Conference, the AFL-CIO, Americans for Democratic Action, American Institute of Architects, and others who have called for bigger programs than President Eisenhower has asked.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.), presiding over Senate hearings on the hotly disputed program, predicted that a one-package housing bill far broader and more costly than Eisenhower wants will be passed by Congress before the end of February.

The Democrats, with commanding majorities in both Senate and House, are driving for a swift passage of a comprehensive housing program in a single bill. It would contain money and authority the President describes as urgently needed to keep some housing activities alive, plus many other items he believes should be cut or otherwise amended drastically.

Eisenhower has demanded a hold-down on federal spending to achieve a balanced budget.

Norman P. Mason, federal housing administrator, and other administration spokesmen appealed yesterday for action now on emergency needs, with less urgent matters to be considered later.

They called for quick action on a bill to provide 100 million dollars of new money for urban renewal grants, 200 million dollars for college housing loans and an increase of six billion dollars in FHA mortgage insurance authority.

Mason and the others all advocated a separate bill to handle urban renewal and other problems, which presumably would simplify the President's task in deciding whether to sign or veto such a measure.

Sparkman told reporters he sees no likelihood that the Senate Banking Committee conducting the hearings would adopt the two-bill approach. He said he feels an omnibus bill would be ready for Senate consideration by Feb. 2.

"I see no reason why it couldn't go to the White House in the month of February," he added.

Charles E. Slusser, public housing administrator, sharply criticized many features of housing bills drafted by Sparkman and Sen. Joseph P. Clark (D-Pa.) as rivals to the administration program. He said they are full of loopholes, and would be subject to fraud and other abuses.

Novatan To Teach Esperanto Class

Novato mail clerk William Walker of 586 Louis drive, Novato, has announced the start of a course in Esperanto, the so-called international language.

Walker said he will teach the course beginning tonight at 7:30 o'clock in Novato's IDESI Hall. "The language is a basis for international understanding and world peace," he declared.

No fee will be charged for the course, he said, but a 25-cent admission fee will be required tonight to cover the rental of the hall. A textbook also is required.

Classes will be held on Friday nights.

In the 1880s about 200 hours were required to make a section of plate glass. Today it takes less than nine hours.

Set Good Example By Abstaining From Tobacco, Doctors Urged

By RENNIE TAYLOR
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Smoking is more of a menace to health than radioactive fallout, a Boston chest surgeon asserted today in a speech castigating members of the medical profession for their "addiction" to cigarettes.

Long use of tobacco knocks off as much as eight or nine years off the average life span, he said.

And medical men, as guardians of the public health, should be ashamed of themselves for not setting an example of abstinence from smoking, he added.

He referred to the habit as an accelerator of lung cancer. In a large room slightly hazed with tobacco smoke, Dr. Richard Overholt called upon his fellow doctors to give up the habit and join health agencies, churchmen, educators and parents in spreading knowledge about smoking and health.

Dr. Overholt, professor of surgery at Tufts College, Boston, addressed a seminar of medical men, nurses and health workers. The meeting was sponsored by the Arizona division of the American Cancer Society.

"Doctors themselves," the surgeon said, "can be of most help by setting a good example. If they smoke, they should attempt to cure their own addiction. They will not only be an example for their friends and patients but they will reduce significantly the risk of their own premature death by lung cancer."

Dr. Overholt formerly was a smoker. He quit in 1942 after learning about what he termed the deleterious effects of smoking.

The threat of lung cancer in this country is almost as great as the risk of death in a traffic accident, Dr. Overholt said. Lung fatalities, he added, are increasing at the rate of 2,000 a year and showing no signs of letup.

But even this booming figure is small beside the potential harm that comes from emphysema and the aging affects of tobacco on the respiratory system, he said.

Emphysema is a disease which destroys some of the tiny air spaces in the lungs, turning them into larger and more inefficient areas for the breathing process. The aging process, he said, makes the lungs of a 60-year-old smoker as old as those of a 90-year-old non-smoker.

"The lungs of a smoker wear out, those of a non-smoker do not," he asserted.

Dr. Overholt said that for every case of lung cancer he sees, he has about 50 cases of emphysema or other forms of lung deterioration.

The Boston surgeon disclaimed that he had any desire to use compulsion against the tobacco habit. He said he does not attempt to talk a man out of the habit if the man defends it on philosophical grounds.

"But the evidence of its harmfulness is so great," he said, "that it is difficult to understand why doctors, of all people, cannot get together on the need for getting rid of it."

Future Merger Action To Be Eyed

Future course of action on possible unification of San Jose and Novato School Districts, in view of the proposal's failure at the polls this month, is to be discussed by the County Committee on School District Organization at a meeting at 8 p.m. next Wednesday in the county superintendent's office in San Rafael.

County Supt. Virgil S. Hollis announced the committee will also discuss proposed legislation affecting California school district organization.

Murderess' Last Hours Told In Film

By LESLIE DARD

Barbara Graham was one of the few women ever to die in the gas chamber at San Quentin Prison. By the time she reached 30—and the end of her life—she had been involved in perjury, prostitution, larceny and murder.

Her final hours were frightful. The execution was delayed, reset, delayed once again. And finally, she got what many people believe was not coming to her: death.

HAYWARD BRILLIANT

All this has been told with emotional and explosive fury in a new film, "I Want To Live," which comes to the Rafael Theater in San Rafael, on Sunday. It stars Susan Hayward in a brilliant performance, for she seems to have attuned her heart and mind to the embittered, callous and underworld behavior patterns of Barbara Graham.

The film details Miss Graham's sordid existence, her attempt to break away—for she knew right from wrong. And it documents the legal process by which our sovereign state snuffs out a life: the frantic last-minute appeals, the final preparations. The camera stays in rapidly fascinated focus right through what is presented as a prolonged death agony.

DEBATE RAGES

There has been much debate about whether or not Miss Graham should have died with Emmet Perkins (Phillip Coolidge) and Jack Santo (Lou Krugman) for the brutal murder of Mabel Monahan. Without question, feeling ran high against the trio, for they also participated in the senseless killing of a Plumas County grocer and three children.

This movie states the case for her innocence. It does not sentimentalize her character, but the total effect of the story is shocking and as remarkable a documentary about capital punishment as we're ever going to get out of Hollywood.

Estimate: Worth seeing.

Driver Denies Guilt

VISALIA (UPI)—The driver of a car involved in the traffic death of actor James Dean has denied the accident was his fault.

Donald Tunipseed, 26, of Tulare issued the denial in answer to a $10,000 suit filed against him by Pacific Indemnity Co. The firm is seeking the money for workmen's compensation and medical benefits paid to Rolf Wuertherich, 30, a mechanic who was injured in the crash.

Pacific Indemnity charges Tunipseed was driving in the wrong lane and hit Dean's sports car in San Luis Obispo County in 1955. Dean and Wuertherich were en route to a sports car race at Salinas when the crash occurred.

New Gourmet Delight At Nicasio; Dimes March Dinner Set Monday

Nicasio is the geographical center of Marin, and Rancho Nicasio is in a way the center of activities of the town—fitting, therefore, that it should be the first to introduce something new in epicurean delights among the county's restaurants.

I think I'm safe in saying that no other has yet served a "hearts of palm" salad.

Hearts of palm are an imported delicacy from South America. They represent the innermost cores of the trunks of young palms growing as suckers from the roots of older trees.

Nick and Mary Kobseff serve them en salade with French dressing, on the regular dinner or a la carte—incredibly delicious.

I said that Rancho Nicasio always seems to be in the middle of things. Glenn Kerch had to be the only casualty in the last storm (fine now, thanks), and Mary Kobseff has been made president of the Women's Auxiliary Fire Department, in conjunction with Nicasio's status as a civilian defense holding area.

If that isn't enough, Nick is chairman of the March of Dimes, and a week from tomorrow night the Rancho will put on its fifth annual all star show, featuring the Hamilton Field Air Force Orchestra, Mary Bapiana, winner of the statewide accordionist contest—herself a native of Nicasio—and Harry Hohmson, vocalist winner of the Ted Weems amateur contest in Chicago.

A worthy cause. All proceeds go to the March of Dimes. Good entertainment—excellent dinners.

OFFICIAL GRAND opening of Rubini's under the new management is tonight. Cocktails and hors d'oeuvres from 5 p.m., buffet dinner from 6 to 10.

Everyone I know who has been there is enthusiastic over food, service and setting—including myself.

LAST NIGHT at Bob's of Marin, Bob Campbell indulged himself in a long-suppressed desire.

It was a switch from the traditional purveyor's dinner which accompanies the opening of a new restaurant or a special event like remodeling, in which all those tradespeople who serve it are invited to attend for the good of the cause. This time it was a celebration.

Wins Trip To N. Y.

Andy N. Baracco of Bugna Lincoln-Mercury in San Rafael was awarded an all-expense trip to New York for proficient parts and service operations during 1958.

on the completion of Bob's of Marin new banquet room, the difference being that Bob picked up all the dinner checks himself, which is pretty good for a Scotsman you'll have to admit. They came from far and wide, purveyors to all the Bob's restaurants (as who wouldn't?)—200 or more of them by special invitation.

The banquet room, by the way, is a very creditable addition—should attract parties of 25 to 250 for breakfasts, luncheons and dinners.

ANNUAL March of Dimes dinner at Sabella's is Monday night.

This is the largest single benefit for the cause in Marin and has been going on for six years. Complete proceeds are turned over to the March of Dimes.

At this point I'm not sure what reservations are left, but try anyway. Considering the occasion, they'll probably make room.

ONE MAN who dines out a lot in Marin put it this way:

There are numerous eating spots in the county with good food and service. When you take out guests you like to have something more. Out-of-town people who are not acquainted with the North Bay territory often form opinions based on their contacts with such public places. The things that help are atmosphere, friendliness, a little different twist from the ordinary—something they may not get in their home town.

The way he expressed it sort of conjured up a picture in my mind of Inverness Lodge. It seemed to meet all the specifications.

I do know that it is popular with out-of-county visitors. Actually, I think more has been written about it and Milan and Manka Prokuek from a human interest angle outside of Marin than within.

One reason, of course, is the story of the Prokueks and their flight from Communist Czechoslovakia, first to Canada, and then to Inverness. It's the sort of tale that appeals to Americans, many of whom or whose antecedents had similar experiences.

Too long to relate here, the story is available to anyone who visits Inverness Lodge. When you get it on the spot it's much more interesting, anyway.

There's another good reason for going—the food. Not a real wide selection by some standards, but if you like Wiener schnitzel, sauerbraten, Vienna style chicken, Hungarian goulash, filet Mignon, fish and oysters in season—all cooked in European style, plus smorgasbord, some wonderful homemade pastries, pies and cakes, and good wines, you'll never be disappointed.

Cross my heart and hope to die.

DE MILLE'S LATEST — Yul Brynner and Claire Bloom in "The Buccaneer," the late Cecil B. De Mille's Technicolor movie of the life of Jean La Fitte will open on Sunday at the Tamalpais Theater in San Rafael. Charles Heston co-stars as Andrew Jackson. Mark Damond and Connie Stevens are in the companion feature, "Party Crashers."

It's Yul, But Disguised In Hairpiece, Mustache

Yul Brynner, all dolled up with hairpiece and mustache, is the star of "The Buccaneer," which the late Cecil B. De Mille dishd up as his first film of 1959.

It's in VistaVision and Technicolor, and opens Sunday at the Tamalpais Theater in San Anselmo.

Brynner portrays Jean Lafitte, the pirate-hero of the New Orleans swamps. Charlton Heston plays Gen. Andrew Jackson and Charles Boyer appears as Dominique You, Lafitte's loyal aide who claimed he was a former French general.

RICH PUDDING

The story is a rich pudding compounded of legend, history, patriotism, old world courtliness and new world derring-do.

It deals specifically with the closing days of the War of 1812, when the British threatened the help of Lafitte and his gang of cut-throats, who were making a fortune out of selling seized treasures to the luxury-loving citizens of the city.

But Lafitte chose to defend American soil, even though the U. S. Navy shelled and destroyed his island stronghold, Barataria, after Governor Claiborne accepted his offer of help and offered pardons to the pirates.

CIVILIZING FORCE

Lafitte's love for the governor's daughter (Inger Stevens) turns out to be the most potent civilizing force on the pirate chief.

Also appearing in this historical fantasy are Claire Bloom, a pirate girl; E. G. Marshall, the governor; Ted de Corsia, a pirate.

The color photography is high caliber, the sets are excellent, the background action is lively and the film, as a whole, is an undemanding, entertaining piece.

Old Army Brigade Reactivated

An old Army group, created in 1918 but disbanded in 1946, was reactivated in ceremonies at Ft. Baker today as the 40th Antiaircraft Artillery Brigade came into being to command the Bay Area's Nike guided missile units.

With Col. Andrew R. Lolli in command, the brigade will have jurisdiction over the 30th AAA group, with headquarters at Ft. Barry, and the 29th Group at Travis Air Force Base and the East Bay.

Originally formed for horse-drawn artillery pieces, the 40th now is concerned with super-sonic Nike-Ajax and Nike-Hercules guided missiles.

Marin batteries included in the command are at Ft. Barry, Ft. Cronkhite, Angel Island and Santa Venetia.

Nearly half of all American families which carry health insurance made some use of it last year, according to the Health Insurance Institute.

Lark Theater Resumes 'Art' Film Policy

The Lark Theater in Larkspur has resumed a policy of showing only foreign, documentary and "road show" films, according to Dennis Parsons, manager of the intimate motion picture house which seats 400.

Currently on exhibit in the theater lobby are paintings by Ray Strong of Mill Valley and Erwin Manheim of Bolinas, also part of a new policy at the Larkspur theater. Coffee will be served between show breaks according to plans.

Blumenfeld Theaters of Marin announced future film showings at the Lark Theater of "My Uncle, M. Hulot"; "Albert Schweitzer" and Alec Guinness' newest release "The Horse's Mouth." Advance listings will be mailed to persons who send their name and address on a post card to the theater, Magnolia avenue, Larkspur.

Course In Bridge Set For Beginners

A 16-week course in beginners' contract bridge, using the Goren method and taught by Ernest Rovere, will start Feb. 3 at 8 p.m. at the Marin Jewish Community Center, San Rafael. Rovere recently won the all-Western bridge championship match title.

On Wednesday evenings at the center, duplicate bridge tournaments are played.

YMCA Opens Adult Member Drive Sunday

The 1959 adult membership enrollment drive of the YMCA of Marin will get under way Sunday with a kickoff breakfast for all workers in the drive in the San Rafael High School cafeteria.

Donald C. Brodie of Kentfield, chairman of the membership drive, declared: "To continue the active program offered to Marin teenagers by the YMCA, the adult membership enrollment drive must be successful."

Financial support for the Y comes from the United Crusade, from youth fees and from adult members who believe in its program.

The YMCA of Marin this week has been recognizing the 108th anniversary of the Y in this country. The Marin chapter has an active enrollment of more than 500 high school boys and girls organized in 42 Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs. If the membership drive is successful, the goal is to increase the number of teen-age clubs to 65 or 70, said Brodie.

The YMCA strives to provide direction to guide the development of young people. The program includes inter-club activities such as ski trips, youth and government program, area conferences, talent shows, basketball leagues, track meets, dances, ice skating and beach parties.

During the summer, Marin YMCA provides a program of day camping for younger boys and resident camping in the Santa Cruz mountains for older boys. Pack trips into the Sierranewadas are offered to both boys and girls in high school.

Local YMCA headquarters is a former residence at 1009 Irwin street, San Rafael.

LUCKY DRIVE TO REDWOOD HIGH CLOSED

Don't try getting to Redwood High School via Lucky Drive now, school officials warned today—but maybe the route will be open soon.

The unpaved, unfinished entrance via Lucky drive has been closed because of a storm sewer repair job and rebuilding of the road itself. School officials said they hope to be able to reopen the entrance when the sewer job is completed.

Simpson Nominated For Education Unit

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday nominated Roy E. Simpson, superintendent of public instruction, for reappointment as a member of the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education.

The four-year term is subject to Senate confirmation. The commission is made up of representatives of 12 western states and Hawaii.

GOP Women Considering Stands On Schools, Budget

FRESNO (AP)—Resolutions before the California Federation of Republican Women for adoption today recommend more rigorous study courses in the public schools, a movement away from centralization of government and attainment of a balanced budget through greater control of inflationary pressures.

A monthly television report to the nation by President Eisenhower is also proposed, along with a call for careful scrutiny of trends toward state and federal control of schools, "metro - government" with county managers to administer countywide affairs, urban redevelopment with "far-reaching possibilities of government control of private property" and mental health proposals lacking strong safeguards of individual civil rights.

Yesterday afternoon, Caspar Weinberger of San Francisco told the group that nationally the Republican Party has a large stake in united support of President Eisenhower's balanced budget now before Congress.

Election of officers was scheduled for this afternoon.

THE Y INVENTED IT — Typical of activities of the YMCA of Marin, which begins an adult membership drive Sunday, is basketball. In fact, the cage game is probably more typical than any other Y activity — for the YMCA invented the game, in 1891. Shown in half-time huddle of San Rafael Recreation Department League game are

By MORRIE LANDSBERG
SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislative reaction buoyed administration hopes today for pushing through Gov. Edmund G. Brown's state water program with its promise of something for everyone.

The governor's water message didn't heal the north-south split over water rights—far from it.

But enough southern members came forward to support the new approach to lessen chances for another crippling deadlock. "Dynamic," said Assemblyman William A. Munnell (D-Montebello).

Northerners on the whole endorsed the program. Brown's hands-off position on a water rights constitutional amendment suited them fine. Some southerners, however, renewed their insistence on such an amendment.

In the past, the Assembly's preponderant southern delegation has opposed funds for water project construction without firm water rights. The Senate, overwhelmingly northern, rejected every amendment proposed.

Brown outlined a 658 million dollar program — 38 million this year—to start on a state-wide aqueduct system to carry northern water south to the state's water-short population areas.

It calls for a 500 million dollar bond issue and use of the entire investment fund, which is expected to have 158 million dollars in tideland oil revenue by June 30.

Legislators assessed Brown's message as politically deft. Aside from sidestepping a constitutional amendment, he avoided major construction in the next year.

Bound For Far East

Erik G. Larsen, Navy seaman apprentice and son of Mr. and Mrs. Viggo Larsen of Woodacre, has left Long Beach aboard the heavy cruiser Rochester for a tour of duty with the 7th Fleet in the Far East.

Market Expansion Nearly Complete

Owners of the F and G Farmers Market at 1125 Grant avenue, Novato, have announced their $5,000 expansion program is expected to be complete by about Feb. 1.

The produce mart, owned by George Hardwick and Fred Woods, has tripled its floor space, and has added a new walk-in refrigerator, fluorescent lighting, push carts and new check stands.

Negotiations are under way to lease an empty Grant avenue lot opposite the market for customer parking, Woods said.

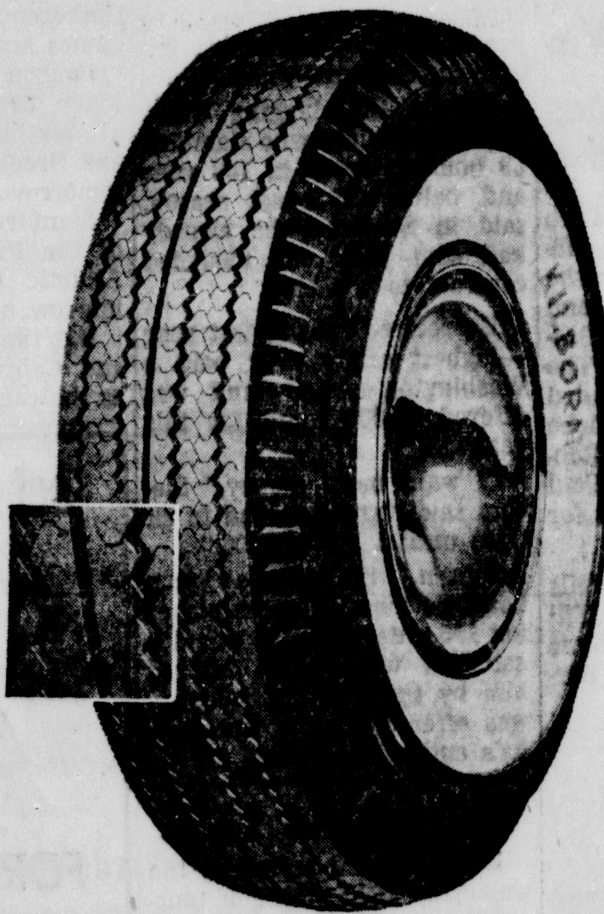

New Home Owner Group Forming

The ranks of Marin County home owner association may be swelled by one next month, as a result of action by six residents in the Glenwood subdivision of San Rafael.

A volunteer committee announced today it has drawn a tentative set of bylaws for such an association. A meeting to consider organization will be held next month, a date yet to be set.

Committee members are Howard Simon, George Allen, Donald Hawken, Nicholas Dollwet, David Menary Jr. and Leo Fehlman.

49ers Big Hit In Basketball, Too; Face Globetrotters Next Tuesday

If producers of television's "Success Story" are shopping around for a fresh subject they might focus their cameras on a group of professional football players who have invented a get-rich-quick plan through the sport of basketball.

We refer to the San Francisco 49ers who comprise a basketball team that annually barnstorms through northern California for exhibition games.

Organized several years ago by Gordy Soltau, the team originally planned a series of games just for kicks, to help keep the players in shape during the off-season and help charity.

They started out playing local all-star teams in various communities. They still do, for a price of $300 per game or 50 per cent of the gross, but the 49ers have added a lucrative series of six games against the Harlem Globetrotters. Last year these two teams played before a crowd of 14,000 fans at the Cow Palace. The gate: $21,000. I don't know how much the 49ers received as their share, but you can bet they didn't play for peanuts.

Next Tuesday night the 49ers and Globetrotters will play at Richmond Auditorium, and we imagine a good crowd of Marin fans will be in attendance.

Actually, the 49ers put on a good show. The likes of Y. A. Tittle and Ed Henke tag along just for kicks, but the rest of the squad presents a formidable basketball organization, featuring Soltau, R. C. Owens, John Thomas, Clyde Conner and Billy Wilson, all of whom won cage letters in college. With Bob St. Clair's 6-foot-9 frame as a key weapon, the 49ers control the backboards well.

The boys really put on a good show. It's a good way for them to keep their bodies—and pocketbooks—in good condition.

JILL HART is a song leader for Drake High's basketball team. Her father, Dick, is head basketball coach at Redwood. Drake and Redwood clash next Tuesday at Drake. Mom Hart ought to make the loser do dishes that night.

SAN RAFAEL Athletic Assn. is making plans to honor one of its charter members at a testimonial dinner on March 11.

Guest of honor will be V. W. "Vic" Jones, former San Rafael High School coach who helped organize the SRAA shortly after World War II and now is a member of the San Rafael Park and Recreation Commission and secretary of the S. R. Board of Education.

Can't think of anyone more deserving of a testimonial than Ol' Vic—a real prince of a guy.

APRIL MEETING SET

Pro Grid Owners Shelve Players' Pension Plan

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—National Football League owners today put off until April 23 in Chicago further discussions on the Players Assn. bid for a pension plan.

Commissioner Bert Bell announced at the league's winter meeting that the owners would study the plan presented yesterday by Bill Dudley, former pro football star and now an insurance and pension consultant. In April, Bell said, they will get together and compare notes.

Three days later, also in Chicago, the league will call in the Players Assn. and hold joint talks on the subject. It is quite possible that a decision on the pension issue will be made at that time.

There were two schools of thought on the issue:

1. The association is making progress toward its pension goal.
2. The association is being taken for a ride and has little chance of reaching its goal.

The viewpoint depends on where you sit.

Bill Howton, Green Bay end who doubles as president of the association, and his committee of six feel they are making progress.

Bell gives the impression of a patient father who is willing to listen, discuss and investigate and then give a reluctant, "No." The owners he directs apparently are of a like mind.

George Preston Marshall, volatile owner of the Washington Redskins, doesn't even bother with diplomacy or niceties. An avowed opponent of the association and its pension request, Marshall sits outside the meeting room like a petulant schoolboy whenever the players discuss the pension with the owners.

Neutral observers believe the

$300,000 Winter Games Ducats Sold

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Ticket sales for the 1960 Winter Olympic Games at Squaw Valley, have already surpassed the $300,000 mark, the Games Organizing Committee reported today.

The event will take place Feb. 18-28. Season tickets to the 11,000 seat ice arena are priced at $200, while tickets for the rest of the Squaw Valley facilities sell for $60 for the 11 days or $7.50 for one day.

Bowmen Schedule Contest Sunday

The Northwood Bowman's Club will hold a special shoot at its Santa Venetia range on Sunday, with registration from 9 to 9:30 a. m. First and second awards will be given in the 42-target shoot, which will include chicken and novelty shoots.

Novice shooters will be welcome.

Harney, Feree Set Pace In Thunderbird

PALM SPRINGS (AP)—Long-hitting Paul Harney and Jim Feree, a pair of former college golf stars, led the way into the second round of the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational Tournament today.

Harney, 29, who on occasion can outdrive the prodigious George Bayer, and Feree, 27, who once won the intercollegiate driving title while attending the University of North Carolina, went into the second round in 16 holes tied at 66, five strokes under par.

The setting is the exclusive Thunderbird Country Club with par 36-35—71 for its 6,800 yards.

Of the 41 invited professionals competing, 28 shot their first round under par.

Today's round promised further close competition. Nine players were within one stroke of the leaders, four just two strokes off the pace, and eight were deadlocked in the 69 bracket.

Such top-notchers as Masters champion Arnold Palmer and Doug Ford and Billy Maxwell were in the 67 group. Defending Thunderbird champion Ken Venturi is in the thick of things with a 68.

United States Open champion Tommy Bolt and a three-time winner of the tournament, Jimmy Demaret, along with such threats as Mike Souchak and Bo Wininger, were tied at 69.

Harney, who golfed for Holy Cross in his college years, scored 32-34—66 in the first round. Going into his final hole, he knew he had to make a birdie three to tie Feree, and he did it.

Feree, who won last year's British Columbia Centennial, made the tour in 36-30. He missed only one green and banded in five birdies on the back nine.

Among the amateur celebrities, Bing Crosby, with pro Demaret, closed well for a baseball team score of 57. Desi Arnaz, with Lloyd Mangrum, also had 57.

Auto Race Champ Dies In Crash

LONDON (AP)—World auto racing champion Mike Hawthorn was killed in the kind of car crash he said should never happen to a good driver.

The hard-bodied wheels of his dark green Jaguar skidded along a quiet, seemingly harmless English road. The car hurtled into a truck, caromed off a tree. The car was wrecked. Hawthorn was killed outright.

A few weeks ago at the pinnacle of his fame, the handsome 29-year-old Hawthorn declared confidently that a skid was the "absolutely final brand of a careless driver."

"But it happens and you must learn what to do," conceded Hawthorn. Yesterday, it happened on a carefree drive through the countryside.

McDougald Raps Yanks, Demands Higher Pay

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Gil McDougald, Roy Sievers and Jackie Jensen all were in the same boat today, threatening to rest on their oars indefinitely until they get more money.

McDougald thus joined a growing list of Yankee ball players who are balking at a cut. The group includes Mickey Mantle, Whitey Ford, Yogi Berra and Bill Skowron.

"This is a knock to every ball player—almost an insult," said the usually mild-mannered McDougald, who slumped to .250 last season.

"It's a matter of pride," he added. "We did win the world championship last year and I think we deserve at least a token raise, certainly not a cut."

McDougald, who received an estimated $35,000 last season, said he had been asked to take a cut of more than $4,000. He added that everyone else he had talked with on the club also had been offered a reduction.

"I don't want to get mad," he said. "The Yankees are a wonderful organization. But I don't know any reason for these pay cuts. It's not right."

Right or not, the only Yankee players known to have been offered a raise are pitchers Bob Turley and Ryne Duren and catcher-outfielder Elston Howard. None of those are reported signed, however, so perhaps even they aren't exactly turning cart-wheels.

Sievers, the slugging Washington outfielder who slammed 39 homers, drove in 108 runs and batted .295 last season, said in St. Louis he already had sent back one unsigned contract to the club.

He received $36,000 last year—highest salary ever paid a Washington player—and was offered $1,000 more for this year.

"I want more money," Sievers said, "and I intend to sit tight until I get $40,000."

Jensen, the American League's most valuable player for 1958, declared he was dissatisfied with terms offered him by the Red Sox. Jensen was offered a raise, but feels he's entitled to more.

Williams To Ink Contract Today

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams, in remarkable condition for his 40 years, was expected to sign his 1959 Boston Red Sox baseball contract today.

Williams figured to retain his status as the highest-paid athlete in the game.

After signing a paper reportedly worth $125,000 or more to him a year ago, Ted got off to a slow start. The ankle sprain he suffered the preceding fall pained him. But treatment and warmer weather eased the ache and he beat out teammate Pete Runnels for league batting laurels on the final day.

MARIN BASKETBALL ACTION

Tam Vs. Redwood In Top Local Tilt

By JOHN KLEMPNER

College of Marin will be going after its fourth straight league win tonight while San Rafael, Redwood and Vallejo high schools will each be laying its share of first place on the line against North Bay League foes.

In the top local prep game, Tam invades Redwood this evening hoping to make it two in a row for the first time. The Indians toppled Drake on Tuesday while Redwood was rolling to an easy win over Santa Rosa. The Giants boast a 3-1 loop record, good for a first place tie, while the Indians are 2 and 2. The B game is set for 7:30 in the Redwood gym with the varsity clash to follow at 8:45.

In other local action, twice-beaten Drake hosts Vallejo, which lost its first game to San Rafael on Tuesday. The game promises to be an exciting one, as both squads need a victory to stay in contention for league honors. The preliminary game starts at 7:30 with varsity action to follow in the Drake gym.

San Rafael should have no trouble collecting its fourth straight win over hapless Montgomery tonight at Santa Rosa. Montgomery is winless though collecting a forfeit from Napa, but the Vikings have had several close games and San Rafael will have to be careful not to let down in order to keep its share of the top spot.

SIX-WAY TIE?

In the fourth NBL game, Santa Rosa meets Napa. If all three league-leaders should lose, and the possibility is not an inconceivable one, there would exist the remarkable occurrence of a six-way tie for first place with the season one-third over. Every team but Napa and Montgomery would have a 3-2 record.

The Tars from College of

Only Three Games Scheduled In PCC

Final examinations take precedence over basketball this week in the Pacific Coast Conference as only three games are slated.

Oregon State, which beat Idaho 87-84 last night, plays at Washington State tonight and Oregon goes to Washington tomorrow.

Stanford entertains College of the Pacific, a West Coast Athletic Conference club tomorrow night.

But the PCC leaders, UCLA and California, both are idle as the cagers battle the books.

Marin will display their two-platoon system at Napa tonight with the game slated for 8 o'clock in the Napa J.C. gym. Although Marin's first platoon has been seeing a lion's share of the action, the second five have made substantial appearances in the last four games and are steadily improving.

Marin, now co-favorite with American River for the Golden Valley Conference championship, has won three straight in league competition.

In Section II action of North Bay League play, Novato hosts Healdsburg at the Hornet gym. Novato is without the services of ace guard Pete Ferrarese, while another star, George Gnos, has been hampered with a bad ankle. Game time is set for 8:45, with the preliminary clash at 7:30.

S.F. Makes Bid For Pro Cage Franchise

DETROIT (AP)—The National Basketball Assn. kicked around the idea of expanding to 10 or 12 teams until the wee hours today and wound up just where it started—with a lot of ideas and no conclusions.

The owners who comprise the NBA's board of governors settled only routine matters.

President Maurice Podoloff said the possibilities of expansion will be discussed at a special meeting in late February when the owners will determine playoff dates.

The governors met on the eve of the NBA's annual All-Star game. The game, pitting stars of the Eastern Division against those of the Western Division, will be played tonight at Detroit's Olympia Stadium.

A delegation from San Francisco formally applied for membership. Other groups from Los Angeles, Portland and Seattle on the West Coast, along with Dallas, Houston, Chicago and Pittsburgh, have expressed definite interest in joining the NBA.

However, several owners said privately they doubt if the league will expand at all in the next year. Expansion, if it comes at all, likely is two years away.

Several owners lean toward admitting Chicago and making the league a nine-team affair in 1959-60.

West idea, for a four-team West Coast division, got a cool reception. A better idea seemed to be to build up the present eight teams. One owner argued that there are not enough good players available for expansion.

Podoloff said the present eight teams apparently are all set for another season. There have been almost-constant rumors that the Minneapolis Lakers are ready to switch to San Francisco, but Podoloff said the Lakers have attained the financial goal spelled out by the league.

Podoloff said the NBA has taken steps to guard against "any future discrimination because of race, creed or color." Elgin Baylor, Minneapolis rookie star, and two other Negro players from the Lakers' club said they were denied hotel accommodations last week-end in Charleston, W.Va. The rest of the players stayed at the hotel, but Baylor and the others had to seek lodging elsewhere.

"We had a guarantee that this would not happen," said Podoloff, "and I can assure you it will not happen again."

He said all teams in the league will have written agreements in the future with the various hotels and lodges.

Letter From Admirer Of Mails Shows Him As Gallant Young Man

They claim, now that he has had a heart attack, that Walter Mails, the San Francisco Giants publicity man, has lost a lot of his vitality and punch and his keen sense of values.

But I do not agree. I think the "Ole Duster" will bounce back. Maybe he will have to cut out half of his speaking engagements, but he can still contribute to the success of the Giants' baseball attendance in 1959.

And the reason I believe that way is because of a letter I just received from a great admirer of Mails. She tells me things I knew about Walter but surprises me when she pictures him as a "gallant young man."

WHEN I KNEW Walter as a young man we used to call him a galute but never "gallant." But with the women, Walter had a way, especially 30 years ago, when he was flying high, wide and handsome.

So I'll turn over the rest of this piece to a lady who signs herself Mrs. Fred A. Goss, 5430 Michael way, Sacramento.

"Dear Mr. Connolly:

"I love to read your column in the Independent. Many, many times you have expressed my own 'anonymous' feelings (right word?)

"I do want to thank you for the wonderful writeup you did on Walter Mails. To me, he is a wonderful guy. You mentioned his love of people (the virtue that makes the world go 'round), but I believe you would like to hear another example of his many unknown kindnesses.

"Naturally, I've known him for many years, ever since he went to St. Rafael's in San Rafael. And the proud way he escorted his mother to her seat was admired by all who saw them.

"He went to our card parties, festivals, etc., and escorted his mother on his arm, just as though she were the best girl in the house.

"BUT HERE is my special reason for writing to you. Walt was a very popular and a very busy person at the time. (Twenty-five or thirty years ago.) But . . . I won two undressed turkeys (live) one night at a whist game and he very generously drove me home with those birds. We got my father out of bed, and in the early morning hours, the three of us killed, plucked and fixed those turkeys for the table. He did not have to do that at all but the generosity in his heart got the best of him. He just wanted to help some poor girl make the best of a big situation. I've always remembered that night, and have always appreciated being just one of the recipients of his many thoughtful acts.

"And to you, thanks for your columns on the Giants and 49ers. I'm a big rooster.

"P.S. I was praying for him during his hospital stay."

FOR THE INFORMATION of Mrs. Goss, and to all friends of Mails, I am able to authoritatively state he is on the mend and is expected to be back at his old desk by the end of the month.

One of the 1959 New Year's resolutions of Mails is to avoid eating chicken and peas at luncheons, consuming a loaf of sour French bread, inhaling three or four belts, taking an after dinner drink, and above all driving 200 miles in the cool of the evening.

One of the typical days in the routine of Mails last year is given here, so you can get some idea of what the Great Mails did as his part of preaching for the Giants . . . One early morning he left San Francisco for Fresno, to attend and speak at a luncheon . . . immediately after he dropped in to Stockton for a dinner . . . then drove after dinner to Marysville for a breakfast and Sacramento for a luncheon . . . so figure that one out and see if it doesn't make sense that he couldn't earn anything but a kick in the pants from ole kid Nature.

Blaik Finally Reveals Secret Of 'Lonesome End'

NEW YORK (AP) — Col. Earl (Red) Blaik, most prolific and successful in Army's line of football coaches, at last has made public the secret of the "lonesome end."

Blaik broke a four-month silence on the method devised to give end Bill Carpenter—who never went near an offensive huddle—the offensive play when he was honored by the Touchdown Club last night.

"You noticed that Caldwell (quarterback Joe Caldwell) would stand facing the huddle sometimes with his left foot forward a bit," Blaik said.

"Well, that meant a run. If the right foot was forward, there was going to be a pass. If his feet were together there would also be a run.

"Now Carpenter had to take various cuts with each play and he would return the foot signal with a signal of his own to tell Caldwell which way he would go. The cut would be the same for a running or a pass play. His signal would be some motion, such as touching his helmet, tugging at his pants, or the like.

"Now wasn't that simple?" he asked as everyone looked at each other wondering whether it was as simple as Blaik described.

But Blaik steadfastly held to another cherished secret, that of his successor at West Point when his resignation becomes effective Feb. 15. Blaik announced his retirement as Army football coach last week after 17 years at the Point.

Blaik received the Touchdown Club award for his 25 years as a head coach, eight of which were spent at Dartmouth before he took over at Army in 1941.

Grand Prix Set For Tennis Pros

LONDON (AP)—Jack Kramer professional tennis promoter, today announced plans for a European grand prix aiming at giving his tennis circus a competitive spirit.

The professionals will collect points for each success in an 80-day tour. Then the five top players will compete in a separate tournament to decide money placings. The prize money will run to at least $56,000. The competition will start in Germany July 10 and move to Britain, France, Holland, Belgium, Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Turkey, Austria, Italy, Switzerland, Spain and Portugal.

Christiansen To Coach 49er Defense

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Jack Christiansen, a defensive back for the Detroit Lions for seven seasons, is the San Francisco 49ers newest assistant coach.

Coach Red Hickey hired Christiansen yesterday to take over the defensive backfield duties. He will replace Mark Duncan who will handle the 49ers defensive line. Duncan coached Christiansen at Colorado A&M.

Christiansen joined the Lions in 1951 and was named all-pro every year from 1952 through 1957. He led the National Football League in interceptions in 1953 with 12 and tied for the title in 1957 with 10.

He was also a kickoff and punt return specialist.

Presidio Leads In Cage Tournament

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Presidio of San Francisco beat Ft. Lewis, Wash., 79-64 last night to take the lead in the double elimination 6th Army Basketball Tournament. The Presidio has a 2-0 record.

Dugway Proving Ground, Utah, eliminated Camp Irwin, Calif., 63-54 and meets Ft. Lewis today. Both Dugway and Ft. Lewis are 1-1 in the tournament, which ends Saturday.

PRESENTING THE DE SOTO SISTERS!

The DeSoto Sisters will help ring in the new year for some 800 sportsmen tomorrow night as they are featured on the vaudeville program of the Marin Rod and Gun Club's annual stag banquet at Bermuda Palms in San Rafael. The sisters use 70 imported bells to play everything from rock and roll to Beethoven, in four, five and even six part harmony. Several other top-notch acts round out the program.

High-Flying Orioles

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles will be flying high during the 1959 season—at least between games. Gen.

Mgr. Lee MacPhail announced today that the American League baseball team will take to the air 17 times during the regular season.

SLIM PICKINGS

McCovey Best Of S.F. Rookie Crop

The accent won't be on rookies in the San Francisco Giants training camp this year. There will be only a handful present.

The reason is obvious. Practically all the good ones were brought up last year. And what a collection! Orlando Cepeda, who walked off with rookie of the year honors; Willie Kirkland, Bob Schmidt, Leon Wagner, Felipe Alou and Andre Rodgers.

All signs point to still another outstanding prospect this season. He is Willie McCovey, a tall, wiry first baseman who is said to be a better hitter than all of last year's rookies with the possible exception of Cepeda.

Willie is the boy the Giants have been waiting to spring on the unsuspecting baseball public for several years. A two-year stay in the service interrupted their plans.

Last year, playing triple A ball for the first time, McCovey rapped Pacific Coast League pitching to the tune of .319. His extra base output included 37 doubles, 10 triples and 14 home runs. In addition, he drove in 89 runs. He is said to be exceedingly fast for a big man and can handle that glove.

Only three new pitches will be in camp. They are right-handers Dom Zanni and Frank Funk and left-hander John Fitzgerald.

Funk is given the best chance to win a place on the staff, most likely as a relief specialist. He won 17 and lost 7 at Corpus Christi, but it was his workhorse tendencies that impressed the Giant brass. He appeared in 48 games, pitched 149 innings and posted a 2.60 earned run average. Zanni was 14-11 at Phoenix.

Marshall Renfro, an outfielder; Ben Valenzuela and Jose Pagan, infielders; and catchers Roger MacCardell and Al Steiglitz, complete the freshman squad.

Valenzuela, a stumpy third baseman acquired in a trade with the St. Louis Cardinals, did most of the 1958 playing at Omaha and hit around .300. Pagan, a Puerto Rican second baseman, looked promising at Springfield, Mass., where he fielded well and batted .298 with 77 RBIs.

MacCardell, who had a brief trial last spring, batted .309 in 66 games with Springfield.

OPEN FRIDAY NIGHT

THE MILL VALLEY Cooperative Nursery School marked Nursery Education Week, Feb. 1-8, with an open house last night. Here, children are shown

DIRECTOR MRS. Marianne Schwabacher plays the accordion for music hour at the Terra Linda Cooperative Nursery School. Mrs. John B. Trimble,

Nursery School Program Plans To Develop Whole Child

In observance of Nursery Education Week, Feb. 1-8, many of the Marin County nursery schools will hold open houses and are inviting all prospective parents and their pre-school children to attend.

In nursery school, there is ample opportunity for outdoor physical activities, for developing motor skills and exercising large muscles. The child will find playmates of his own age and supervised play with other children. Play equipment which is specifically designed to stimulate imaginative play and develop coordination is available. The child will enjoy choosing from slides, jungle gyms, play houses, sand boxes, building blocks and boards and other outdoor toys.

In addition to physical play, many artistic and intellectual experiences await the pre-schooler. He can choose from a variety of media, such as, easel painting, finger painting, clay modeling, simple songs, finger plays, activity songs, rhythms, dancing and rhythm instruments.

The program is steered toward the development of the whole child.

Also to be found in the nursery school are professionally selected toys which develop fine muscle coordination. For the quiet times at school, the child has a wide selection of puzzles, crayons, blocks and educational toys.

Many schools have found that nature trips, excursions and play sessions at the parks are educational as well as fun. Here as with all school activities, under careful supervision, the small child can see the environment.

Trips to bakeries, farms and dairies acquaint them with the work of the community about them.

Five Marin cooperative nursery schools have planned open house. Also included are persons to contact for further information.

The Mill Valley Cooperative Nursery School held open house last night. For information call Mrs. George Saxton, 533 Pineo avenue, Tamalpais Valley.

The Corte Madera-Larkspur Cooperative will hold open house in April. For information call Mrs. Paul Brown, 118 Juno road, Belveron Gardens.

The San Anselmo Cooperative School will hold open house on Wednesday, May 27. Call Mrs. George Cunningham, 112 Jordan avenue, San Anselmo.

Thursday, Apr. 9 is the date of the San Rafael Cooperative School's open house. Mrs. Richard Curtis, 12 Sherwood drive, San Rafael, may be contacted for further information.

The Terra Linda Cooperative has planned an open house in the spring. Mrs. Raymond DeMarta, 732 Monticello road, San Rafael, may be reached for further information concerning the school.

Macy's Will Present Style Show Tuesday

Fashions in Living Color inspired by RCA Television with fabrics by Abbot Mills and styled in McCall's patterns will be presented in a show at Macy's, San Rafael, on Tuesday at 2:30 p.m.

Norma Gantner, McCall's stylist will act as commentator for the fashion show which will be held on the first floor of the store. A model from the John Robert Powers School will preview the fashions.

Course Date Changed

A Basic Leadership course to train new Brownie and Intermediate Girl Scout leaders which was scheduled to begin Jan. 27 at Hamilton Field Youth Center has been postponed to Feb. 10. Registrations will still be accepted for the evening course which will be taught by Mrs. Walter Carter, volunteer trainer, troop leader and camp director, and Miss Dorothy Erthle, executive director for Marin County Girl Scout Council.

AT RICKEY'S

Koret Collection Will Be Previewed

Tuesday, Feb. 3 is the date for a "Fashion Focus" first in Marin.

"Designs for Young Living" the incomparable summer 1959 collection of the renowned San Francisco designer Stephanie Koret will be presented to fashion-minded Marin women at Rickey's popular Tuesday luncheon which will honor the Junior Museum Service League for its outstanding work with the Junior Museum of Marin.

The guests will go "Cross Country with Koret," north, east, south, and west wherever the magic name of Stephanie Koret is known. And it has become a by word in the world of fashion. So much so, that a few years ago the Koret of California, Ltd. opened in far off South Africa, in addition to sales representatives on five continents and seven manufacturing plants making them the largest manufacturer in the United States of diversified women's sportswear.

The brilliant, colorful coordinates by Stephanie Koret are high fashion in styles that are practical and beautiful. She has been the champion of the "California look."

It is her most dramatic, colorful, flattering and wearable 1959 fashions that will be standouts in the unique fashion show lineup at Rickey's on Feb. 3 with eight stunning models from the Junior Museum Service League membership chosen especially to model the Koret designs.

For those who love the allure of the Pacific Islands, Stephanie Koret has designed her for a "Tradewinds" group in brilliant Pioret print and glowing tones of Sunset Red and Meridian Blue. The models will show the new Stephanie Koret swimsuit just introduced which promises to make the Koret name a by-word among Marin swimmers; they will be ready to go cross country in the Koret "Weekender" group, a capsule wardrobe to pack on a moments notice.

For the "Cross Country with Koret" show, modeling will be done informally among the tables so that each guest may enjoy the brilliant combinations of colors, the superb fit, finish and fabric of each Stephanie Koret design at close range. They will see spectacular sports ensembles, sun dresses, smart pants, play wear and swimwear which women the world around will soon be admiring in the national fashion magazines.

Early reservations are suggested for the special Feb. 3 show and may be made by calling Rickey's Rancho Rafael. The Tuesday fashion show luncheons are open to the public.

All-Day Bridge

The next OWC all-day bridge will be held Jan. 29 at the Officers' Club. The bridge will begin promptly at 9:30 a.m. and is sponsored by the Officers' Wives Club of Hamilton Air Force Base. Please phone reservations to Mrs. Wilfred C. Dorn.

SAN ANSELMO

Jane Spicer Bride Of Robert C. Lamb

White stock, gladioli and arrangements of white lilies were at the altar of the First Presbyterian Church in San Anselmo for the recent wedding of Jane Susan Spicer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Spicer of Sleepy Hollow and Robert Clay Lamb of Lakeview, Ore.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Lamb of Lakeview.

The Rev. Robert Clapham officiated for the 3 o'clock double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white ballerina gown of Chantilly lace fashioned with scalloped scoop neckline, three quarter sleeves and full skirt. Her elbow length veil of silk illusion was attached to a half hat of satin and lace appliqued with seed pearls. She carried a nosegay of white carnations and pink roses with white satin streamers.

Carol Spicer of Sleepy Hollow as maid of honor for her sister, wore a ballerina gown of pale yellow peau de soie over taffeta styled with a soft neck drape and flowing back panel.

She had a bandeau of peau de soie with flowers and carried a nosegay of white carnations and yellow roses.

Louis V. Lamb of Lakeview served his brother as best man and ushers were Ronald E. Hawk of Corvallis, Ore., Ray E. Kraft of San Anselmo and Dennis Wallace of Medford, Ore.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Spicer wore a royal blue lace over taffeta sheath with white hat and accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The bridegroom's mother wore a navy wool sheath with pink accessories and a white orchid corsage.

White stock and gladioli were used in the Fireside Room of the church for the reception for 75 guests which followed the ceremony.

For a wedding trip to the south, the bride wore a black and white tweed suit with black velvet collar and hat and black accessories. She had a corsage of white carnations.

The bride was graduated from Sir Francis Drake High School and attends Oregon

SRI CLUB'S PARTY SLATED

Fourteen tables have already been arranged for the bridge salad luncheon of the San Rafael Improvement Club on Tuesday, Jan. 27, and reservations are still continuing. Mrs. Lawrence A. Cowen, club president, says. She is chairman of the event, which begins at 12:30 p.m.

Reservations are being taken by Mrs. W. C. Cornwell of San Rafael and Mrs. Homer Wood, who lives in Northridge.

Luncheon Is Served

Members and Friends of the Fairfax Women's Club will attend "Luncheon Is Served" at the clubhouse on Park road at 12:00 noon next Wednesday, Jan. 28. Mrs. Volmer Anderson is taking telephoned reservations. She is also the chairman of the hostess committee. The other members of the committee are Mesdames Clarence J. Bergstrom, Thomas T. E. R. Duly, Edward P. Barry, R. M. Meredith, George Jones, Henry R. Sanborn, L. R. Schlosser, A. P. Kilpatrick, Lloyd E. Spencer and C. W. Carle. Door prizes and other prizes will be given. Cards will be played during the afternoon.

Mill Valley AAUW Will Meet Tuesday

Topic for Tuesday's monthly meeting of the Mill Valley Branch of the American Assn. of University Women will be, according to Mrs. Alfred F. Kerr, program chairman, "The Short-Doyle Act—How It Functions Throughout California and How It Could Function in Marin County."

Members will meet at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall of the Mill Valley Community Church.

Dr. Arnold Schwartz, chief of mental health services for the state department of public health, will be the guest speaker for this program on mental health assistance, the need for which has long been urged by the branch, backed by national AAUW headquarters.

The same evening Dr. Emily Philbrick, chairman of the social and economic issues study group, will represent the branch at the Marin County Board of Supervisors' meeting on this same issue. Dr. Philbrick has been authorized by the executive board to present the branch's approval of efforts by the county to obtain benefits under the Short-Doyle act.

Dr. Ballard Addresses Parsonettes

About 75 Parsonettes, wives of faculty members and students at the San Francisco Theological Seminary, met on Tuesday night in the lounge of Alexander Hall to hear Dr. C. Hudson Ballard, noted lecturer on psychology and religion. He entitled his talk "Home Base" and dealt with the public and private life of the minister and his wife.

The social life of the minister's wife was discussed. The subjects of consideration were personal friends, church calling, and accepting positions of leadership in the church. Dr. Ballard asked future minister's wives to remember that they are not assistant ministers, and their first duty is to their home and family. The wife's relation to her husband was the next area of discussion. The importance of being mentally alert and well informed was stressed. Personal relationships was the third subject. The necessity for constant adapting and giving were listed as all important. Dr. Ballard suggested that wives should help their husbands budget time efficiently so that they may take a full day off each week. Dr. Ballard closed with the statement that the minister's "Home Base" has close relationship to his entire ministry as understanding and cooperation at home are essential.

The meeting was opened by the president, Gene Knox, and a hymn was sung. Devotions, presented by JoAnne Bell, were entitled "Where Do We Find Jesus Christ?" The business meeting followed. After the program, refreshments were served by Circle Two of which Virginia Reed is leader.

Shower Given Recent Bride

A bridal shower was given for Mrs. Ralph Paula of Petaluma recently at the home of her sister, Mrs. Ed McDonald of Novato. Attending were about 30 relatives and friends. The bride, the former Kathleen Redding, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Redding of Tocaloma. She is a graduate of Tocaloma High School.

The new benedict, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Paula, was graduated from Petaluma High School and served in the Air Force. Both of the young people are members of well known families. The newlyweds are residing on the William Paula ranch in Petaluma.

At a New Year's Eve party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald, Kathleen and Ralph announced they had been married in August.

OBESITY EVIL TO BE TOPIC FOR BPWC

"Medical evils of obesity" is the subject for the talk which Dr. George E. Robson will give at the dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County on Tuesday night, Jan. 27. Dr. Robson, clinical professor at Stanford University Medical School, is not only renowned in his profession but is a brilliant speaker.

The meeting, which will take place at Rieck's Rancho Rafael, is under the chairmanship of Dr. Marjorie Belknap, the club's health and safety chairman.

At the club's recent meeting at Mission Inn, Stanley Herrick, insurance analyst, analyzed the group insurance plan of the club, pointing out what protection the policy gives and what it does not provide. Dr. Betty Fawcett, the club's first vice president and program chairman, was in charge of the meeting.

Phyllis Logan Is Betrothed

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Norman Logan of Sausalito are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Phyllis, to Jason Leslie Stuart of San Francisco.

Jason is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Charles Schultz of New York. He has one brother, Kenneth, also of New York. Phyllis, who was reared in Sausalito, has one sister, Mrs. Joan Logan Britton, who is attending the University of Nevada.

Although details are incomplete, tentative plans for a late April wedding are being made by the young couple.

Marin County Girl Scout Council Will Meet Tuesday

All Marin County women who active in Girl Scouting are invited to attend the Marin County Girl Scout Council Annual meeting which will be held at Scout Hall, San Rafael at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday.

The meeting will start with registration and a coffee get-together. Promptly at 10 o'clock the meeting will be called to order by the Council president, Mrs. Lyman Emerson. A flag salute will be presented by three Marin Scouts and an invocation read by Bunny Brown, Mariner of Ship 132. This will be followed by introduction by the president of neighborhood chairmen, board members, elected delegates from the districts and members of the membership nominating committee.

Following the regular business meeting there will be a brief presentation on methods of "Good Council Communications" by the National Field Staff representative, Miss Norma Northberg. At the conclusion of Miss Northberg's talk there will be a 15 minute discussion open to the audience. Next on the program will be a Cookie Sale skit directed by Mrs. Don Adams and featuring the Mesdames Charles Lavaroni, Randall Earl, David Brennan, John Gaffield, Robert Jones, George Givens and Arthur Collbran. This presentation, which will show many facets of humor and hard work involved in a cookie sale, will also be followed by a 15 minute discussion.

Mrs. Wayne Bingham will be in charge of refreshments assisted by neighborhood groups. A display of the new Sierra Campsite for Marin Girl Scouts will be set up at the meeting under the direction of Mrs. Kenneth Anderson.

INTERNATIONAL PROJECT

Business Women's Clubs To Continue Scholarships

Dr. Muriel Duncan of Beverly Hills, international relations chairman of the California Federation of Business and Women's Clubs, speaking at Saturday night's dinner which highlighted the two-day board meeting of Redwood Empire District, BPWC, said that contributions are being continued to the Philippines scholarship fund. The federation has made it possible for a number of women of the Philippines to further their education in this country. The present recipient of a scholarship is arriving soon to study at the University of California at Los Angeles. Dr. Duncan also spoke on the international convention of BPWC to be held in Paris in July.

The board session, attended by about a hundred members, representing clubs as far north as Crescent City, was held at Rieck's Rancho Rafael with the Business and Professional Women's Club of Marin County, the hostess organization. The guests were welcomed by June Brusati, Marin's president. A "Mad Mad Week-end" theme was carried out with the Marin members garbed at beatniks.

Book Reviews Slated By Mill Valley Guild

Mount Carmel Library Guild is holding its first meeting of the new year in the activity room of Our Lady of Mount Carmel School, Mill Valley on Wednesday night, Jan. 28, at 8 o'clock. Following the business session, two book reviews will be presented.

Mrs. Frank Martinez has been asked to review "The Gem of Christ" because it is a biography of saint whose name she was given at baptism, Gemma Galgani. Mrs. R. P. Sweeney will review "Woman of Russia" which explains how Russia can be saved from Communism by prayer. In conjunction with the book review, Mrs. Sweeney will read two newspaper articles headed "Is Religion Really Dead In Russia?" and "Religion Held Big Problem to Russ Reds." All interested in the program are invited to attend.

12 Homes To Be Fun Fest Locales

Plans for the annual AAUW Fun(d) Fest are rapidly taking shape. Mrs. Hugh G. Marchant of Kentfield is Marin Branch Fellowship chairman, and has named Mrs. Jay Simon as chairman for the bridge-luncheons and evening dessert-bridge parties, and Mrs. Paul O. Sather of Ross as tea chairman, as the Branch once more joins forces to raise money for Fellowship.

Luncheon will be served at 12 o'clock in 12 homes spread throughout the county on the afternoon of Feb. 10th and later the same day husbands and wives will play bridge following dessert.

Mrs. Robert L. Flanders is hostess chairman and Mrs. James W. Kearney, chairman of co-hostesses. They have arranged parties at the following homes—listed with their co-hostesses. In the Redwood Area, Mrs. J. R. Rideout and Mrs. Chester Carlisle will open their homes assisted by Mesdames Robert Keller, R. L. Siler, L. T. Lamb, Vaughn Hill, Robert L. Flanders and Charles Swenson.

In the Dominican Area home of Mrs. Dan T. Bergman with Mrs. Harry Bach and Mrs. H. H. Fulkerson assisting. At the Kent Woodlands home of Mrs. Robin Galloway there will be another party and Mesdames Clyde J. Curley, Jr., Joel Nemshoff and Watson Connor will be co-hostesses. In the Greenbrae area, Mrs. Harold De Pue and Mrs. Richard Kahn will open their homes with Mesdames Arthur Bacich, John Rickard, Joseph Badrigo and John Cummings helping to serve lunch. Parties in the San Anselmo area will be held in the Jordan avenue home of Mrs. Robert Rhoads, Jr. and at the home of Mrs. Roger Hedin.

Rod, Gun Auxiliary To Install Jan. 27

Installation of officers of Marin Rod and Gun Club Auxiliary will be held at the clubhouse at Pt. San Quentin on Jan. 27. Mrs. G. Paul Jones, chairman of the evening, announced that Barney DeBischop, a past president of the Marin Rod and Gun Club, will be the installing officer. The election was held in December.

Seated will be Mesdames Stephen Lato, president; Charles Lamperti, vice president; William A. Murray, secretary, and John Marzetta, treasurer. The new directors are Mesdames Charles Manning, William H. Sturges, Walter O. Hellwig and Ellamae Santos.

Reservations may be made with Mrs. P. G. Cochrane of Kentfield.

Holy Family Guild Slates Big Benefit

"Holy Family Day—April First!" This is the slogan for all members and friends of the Holy Family Guild of Marin.

The home of Mrs. Arthur Luchetti of Corte Madera was the locale for the first meeting of the committee. Arrangements moved forward at a rapid pace. Plans for the luncheon and silent auction to take place on April 1, at the Corte Madera Recreation Center, are now well under way, under the leadership of Mrs. Luchetti and Mrs. Albert Fox of Fairfax.

To spearhead the big event, a sponsors' luncheon will take place at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Freeberg of Ross on Tuesday, Feb. 3. Reservations are limited, so anyone desiring to attend may call Mrs. Luchetti, Mrs. Fox, Mrs. Walter Garrett of Greenbrae, Mrs. Harold Haley of San Rafael, Mrs. Joseph De Martini of Sausalito, or Mrs. William Fahy of Mill Valley.

Installation of new officers took place recently at the Holy Family Convent in San Anselmo. New officers are: Mesdames Walter Garrett, president; Edwin Smith, vice president; F. E. Chamberlin, corresponding secretary; Edward Rancke, treasurer, and Miss Eleanor Beales, recording secretary.

The new board of directors is not yet complete, as new districts to be included this year. The board is an important unit of this organization because it is its duty to contact parents of all children taught by the Holy Family Sisters in all sections of Marin County. The guild not only assists the Sisters in this community, but also gives financial aid in building the new novitiate at Mission San Jose. Membership is open to all, and especially mothers whose children are being taught by the Sisters.

Officers' Wives Club Have Luncheon Meet

Little Sweden in Marin was the setting for the recent luncheon meeting of the Officers' Wives Club of Hamilton with the wives of WADF/DO as hostesses.

Mrs. Thomas L. Hayes read the revised OWC constitution to the group. It was voted to accept the constitution.

The revision committee included Mrs. F. Hayes and Mesdames E. F. Hoover, Marvin Good and James J. Roberts.

Mrs. Charles Wells presented a reading.

GAIL BOST BECOMES BRIDE OF JAMES REY AT ST. STEPHEN'S

In a 7 o'clock ceremony Wednesday evening at St. Stephen's Church in Belvedere with only members of the family present, Gail Bost, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederic C. Bost of Belvedere, became the bride of James Rey, son of City Manager and Mrs. Bing Rey of Belvedere.

The Rev. Edward Mohr officiated. For her wedding the bride wore a blue and green silk print dress with matching shoes. A blue and green veil was held by a headress of green orchids which corresponded to her bridal bouquet.

Bettina Bost, a sophomore at Redwood High School, was maid of honor for her sister. She wore an emerald green satin dress with matching shoes. A green veil matched her dress and she carried a bouquet of cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's twin brother, Robert, was best man. A dinner for the bridal party followed at the home of the bride's parents.

For a wedding trip to Lake Tahoe, the bride wore her wedding ensemble.

Gail was graduated from The Katharine Branson School and attended the University of California at Davis. She has a brother, Rick, who is in his sophomore year at Yale; and three sisters, Alice, a junior at Colorado College and Cindy and Bettina who both attend Redwood High.

The bridegroom was graduated from Tamalpais High school and attended College of Marin. He served four years with the U.S. Coast Guard. In addition to his twin brother, the bridegroom has a sister, Mrs. Robert Van Keulen of Tacoma, Wash.

The couple will reside in Belvedere.

League Supervisors Meet At Marin General

A meeting of the daily supervisors of the Marin General Hospital League was held recently in the annex of the hospital. Supervisors present were Mesdames Homer Williams and Walter Pearce of San Rafael; Mesdames Donald McIntosh and Allan Gilman, both of Greenbrae; Mesdames Ward Hawkins and Lyman McBride of San Anselmo; Mrs. Clifford Pehl of Kentfield and Mrs. John Kyle of Belvedere. Discussion was led by the Directors of Volunteers, Mrs. George Boyd of Mill Valley and her assistant, Mrs. Russell Chatham of San Anselmo. Also present were Mrs. J. P. McFarland, president, of Kentfield and Mesdames Arne Kionig and Howard Burns, committee chairman, both of Kentfield; Mrs. Leslie Clason of Greenbrae and Mrs. William Miles of Ross.

Meetings are held quarterly and this is the first one held since the present supervisors took over in October.

BPW Board Convenes In Los Angeles

"If you don't stand for something, you'll fall for anything!"

This was the challenging statement made to members of the California Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, convening in Los Angeles for a mid-term State board session, by David M. Snow, director of Industrial Relations, Hallam Electronics Co., Anaheim.

"Women's Role in America's Positive Answer to the Negative Forces in the World" titled Snow's plea for the individual's fight against Communism.

The talk came as a climax to the presentation by board members of a program based on G. Edgar Hoover's "Masters of Deceit" story of Communism. State Federation president, Mrs. Dorothy M. Ford, Sherman Oaks, leader of some 17,000 members of the state organization, believes women "must face facts in this Cold War and then do something about the situation."

Nominees for state offices, to be elected in May at the group's annual convention in Coronado, include: for president, Mrs. Elizabeth Evans Chapman, Stockton; for first vice president Mrs. Zella Stone, Upland; for second vice president, Mrs. Lily M. Budde, San Francisco; Mrs. Nikki Begley, Hayward; Mrs. Edna Hagerty, Sunland; third vice president, Mrs. Cravens Douglass, El Segundo; Mrs. Edythe Kennedy, Los Angeles, and treasurer, Miss Irene Young, Hollywood.

March 7 has been set for the annual meeting between members of the Federation's legislative committee and the State legislators in Sacramento.

Expected this week from Quezon City in the Philippines is this year's State BPW recipient of the Philippine Scholarship, Miss Alicia Gomez. She will enroll at the University of California at Los Angeles to do graduate work in psychology.

Mrs. Marion Rowe To Address School Luncheon Meeting

"Television for Children" with Mrs. Marion Rowe, creator and director of Adventure School, as the speaker has been chosen as the subject for discussion at the annual meeting of the Belvedere Nursery School to be held Tuesday, Jan. 27 at 1 p.m. at the San Francisco Yacht Club.

Luncheon will be served and at the business meeting new officers will be elected. The slate to be presented by the nominating committee includes Mesdames James Knox, president; John Hoffman, vice president; Gerald Noble, secretary; Berton Jacobson, treasurer; Richard Sims, Lowell Airola and Kenneth Wells, trustees. Mrs. Knox will succeed Mrs. Robert Kirchmann.

The public is cordially invited to attend, especially parents who anticipate enrolling children in the school. The subject will cover all aspects of TV for all ages. Mrs. Rowe has received several TV awards for the best program for children as well as for producing a professionally acceptable program. She is well-known in the field of family relations and community welfare in Southern California as well as in the Bay Area and she is a popular speaker before parent groups, agencies, on radio and on TV panels. Her husband, Thomas Rowe, is director of the San Francisco Youth Assn.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Kirchmann or Mrs. Robert Ingram, both of Belvedere.

Nothing In Water Program For North Bay Aqueduct

Dishearteningly absent from Gov. Pat Brown's water message to the Legislature yesterday was any mention of construction of the North Bay Aqueduct.

There were requests for funds to carry water to Southern California and to the South Bay area. But the North Bay can go dry insofar as the governor's water program is concerned.

Last general session we were given more consideration. Funds were provided for preparation of plans and specifications for the project. But money was deleted from the 1957-58 budget which would have allowed acquisition of rights of way and first stage construction of the project.

Now, the governor apparently has not been made well enough aware of the project and our needs to even include it in his water program. Funds are proposed for the rights of way and construction of the South Bay Aqueduct, but not a cent even for rights of way for the North Bay.

This should be a lesson to us—never let a good project just drift after it is launched. There has been no concerted action on anyone's part for construction of the project. The Department of Water Resources has complained that boards of supervisors, including Marin's, have not gotten behind the project even to passage of a resolution in favor of it. At hearings on the project, there has been little or no enthusiastic endorsement of the aqueduct. Most of the testimony has been picking at small parts of the project, not just by Marinites, but others as well. This bickering, we believe, has now led to the brink of extinction of a project which in years to come could well be vital to not only Marin but Sonoma, Napa and Solano counties as well.

In a county like ours, where no big river promises an endless supply, we can't afford to toss away feasible sources of water.

Happily the governor's water program is not the final word as to what goes in or out of this year's budget. The Legislature has that say. It would have been nice had the North Bay Aqueduct been included in Brown's proposals. But it is still possible to amend it into the legislation.

Likewise, a separate bill can be introduced calling for the project's construction. Senator Jack McCarthy already has indicated he will put such a bill before his colleagues.

Vital to success of either of these courses, however, is a united front on the part of the four counties most concerned. Marin's supervisors, its Development Foundation, its water districts and chambers of commerce, to name only a few, should get together and see what needs to be done—and then DO it.

People Are Fascinating Hobby

There is no excuse for anyone with good eyes and a little imagination to complain of being bored these days. Anyone who complains that nothing interesting ever happens obviously has not yet discovered the fascination of people-watching.

People-watching can be practiced wherever groups of these entertaining specimens gather. They must be approached warily, for they are a bit skittish and are apt to become uneasy or take offense if they are studied too intently. An automobile parked at a supermarket provides an excellent place of concealment for pursuit of this science.

The beauty of people-watching is that everyone can have his own system of classification. Some experts prefer to classify according to attire, such as Mobile-hipped Pedal-pusher (a common Marin species.) Others prefer classifications such as Red-headed Cigar-chewer or (imaginatively) Pink-eyed Beerschooner.

People-watching is best enjoyed in the company of another enthusiast. This way more accurate classifications can be arrived at. However, any way it is approached people-watching is an enjoyable and rewarding hobby.

HAL BOYLE'S COLUMN

No Matter What Success Costs, Successful Won't Give It Up

NEW YORK (AP)—The one thing the rest of the world feels surest of about the average American is this: That material success is his god.

And the rest of the world couldn't be wrong.

Great material success is admired rather than worshipped by the average American—just as he admires achievement in any form, whether it be in the art of home run knocking or hula hooping. He even has a sneaking admiration for a successful bank robber—so long as the fellow doesn't spill blood.

But material success isn't the major goal of the average American. It is only one of his major daydreams. But he doesn't want it bad enough to make his dream come true.

Take yourself, as an average American. Why aren't you a success?

You probably can't, with honesty, put the blame on fate, your boss or your wife. You can't even blame it on the fact you were born dumb and never outgrew it. The chances are you aren't a big success simply because it isn't worthwhile to you. There simply are other things more important to you.

In my work as a reporter I have interviewed perhaps 2,000 "successful" people over the last quarter century. Asked the reason for their success, about 99 out of 100 gave the same answer: "Hard work." The hundredth person would credit it to "getting the breaks," or admit, off the cuff, he inherited success or married into it.

Many successful people I have met have lacked the charm, personality and even the talent I have found among other men so spectacularly unsuccessful they couldn't buy their way into the city dump. They aren't nearly as much fun to be with.

ONE DIFFERENCE between the successful man and the average man is obvious. The average man has credit. The successful man has credit plus something else—it is called money.

But there are other differences. The big one lies in how they use their energy. The successful man controls his energy and directs it to a single aim—the winning of success. Everything else is secondary. The average man isn't that single-minded.

DOES the successful man himself regret the price he had to pay to get where he is? Often he does—in a very wistful human way. But there is a limit to his regret.

The average man sometimes likes to boast he wouldn't trade places with the most successful man he ever knew. The successful man returns the compliment. He isn't interested in changing places either.

No matter how stern the cost of success, the last thing any successful man I ever met was willing to give up was—success.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Ross Should Let Hospital Expand

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Recently I had occasion to be a patient in the Ross General Hospital where I had major surgery, and was confined for a period of two weeks.

Having been in hospitals before, both civilian and military, I want to testify that my experience at Ross General was one of particular pleasure. Words are inadequate to describe the friendly, personal care given by the nurses on the floor, and the warm, friendly atmosphere which seemed to prevail in the entire institution. Truly, Ross General Hospital warrants its name of "The Hospitality Hospital."

This hospital is now faced with the problem of expanding its facilities in order that it may perform an even greater service to the people of the surrounding communities. How tragic it would be if the citizens of Ross would cling to an antiquated statute on its books and prohibit such an expansion. Let us hope that

The Independent-Journal welcomes contributions to "What Our Readers Say." Letters must be signed and must not exceed 300 words in length. The editor reserves the right to delete malicious material.

Why Must Zoning Battle Be Refought

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

Just who in Marin County is free of the eagle eye of the developer or the avaricious schemes of some sellers of property? How can a home owner be assured that he is safe in investing his personal savings in a home of his own?

The planning commission has provided zoning so that each of us is aware of what he buys when he buys it. But how quickly this can change! Brazen business forces need only eye a desirable site and then apply for the rezoning of that site. No regard is given its present zoning nor the land surrounding it. Whether the rezoning is finally denied, (as in Puerto Suello) or whether a compromise is handed down (as in Meadowsweet where the developer asked for 64 and was given 35 units) the procedure forces a rightful and vehement protest from the firmly entrenched owners of private homes in the area.

Why should extraneous forces be allowed to attempt entry into an area where the zoning does not suit them and where their plans are not welcomed by the majority of the residents? Why are the older, well-established residents of a community forced to scan the agenda of the planning commission monthly to see what further infringement is planned? Why must there be a series of battles between those who would sell out and get out and those who would maintain the area as originally zoned?

Is there no over-all solution to these unfair requests for spot rezonings in already established neighborhoods?

We and our neighbors are tired of fighting those few among us who would sell out to "progressive-minded" developers. We are tired of fighting, but we are already prepared for the next battle which is sure to come unless zoning comes to mean more than it does at present.

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By DICK STEINHEIMER

Rugged Youths Take Everything In Stride On Sierra Ski Trip

The ruggedness of youth is something that never fails to astound this reporter. Coming across our desk about the same time as Conqueror Castro's march to Havana, was the report of an outstandingly good snow trip run by the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission to Soda Springs in the Sierra.

Seems the fun was only starting for kids and chaperones on the trip when they got up about 4 a.m. to make a 5 a.m. departure from downtown Corte Madera.

The 34 snow bunnies, roaring on up Highway 40 in cold wet rain, then found their bus stalled behind a traffic jam, caused by a mud slide.

Then it seems the whole group suddenly got a bad case of "adrenalinitis" when their bus skidded passing the slide and slid sideways down the highway, coming to a rest a few feet from the edge of the embankment.

Getting a tow they continued on to the top of the hill where the rest of the day was spent in snowball fights, changing clothes and hiking.

About 11 p.m. that night, the bus was back in Marin with its first stop at . . . you guessed it . . . Marin General Hospital. According to Peggy Korff, one of the counselors, the stop however wasn't to let the old folks out but, strangely enough, to give Martha Moore, one of the young gals, a chance to have a twisted knee examined.

Martha received the "Order of the Bloody Bandaid" and as far as we know the kids are still talking about the great time.

SOMETHING THAT recently interested us was the seeming popularity among voters of "anti" type citizens' committees.

Perhaps the most recent success of such a committee was in the heavy defeat of the Corte Madera Sanitary District bond issue for financing a sewage treatment plant. The same appears headed for the Tamalpais Union High School District tax election Feb. 17. Possibly the same will happen again when a proposal for merger of Larkspur and Corte Madera finally gets on the ballot.

We were surprised at the apparent support given the 15-person sewer study group in view of the fact that the group actually advocated no specific thing but a "no" vote.

One of the supporters of the committee commented that formation of the committee was based on the premise that a contract could be reasonably negotiated with the Ross Valley Sanitary District.

We hope we'll see some of these opposition committees actually come up with positive proposals which the electorate can stack up against those of other viewpoints. We feel the best persons to decide whether a measure is "Yes" or "No" is the electorate. Not always those who present proposals.

By the same token we have the personal feeling that trustees of the Tamalpais High District are missing a bet by asking for money, when they could be asking the electorate if it wants those services to students a tax raise would provide.

WALTER LIPPMANN

How Can Russians Understand Us When Even The British Can't

Anthony Nutting, writing from London on Anastas Mikoyan's visit, has succeeded in demonstrating how hard it is for even the friendliest nations to understand one another. Nutting reports that it is being "seriously debated" in London whether the United States is moving towards "a two-power deal" with the Soviet Union.

After a long report on how much our motives are suspected in Europe, he proceeds to lecture us on what we must do to make our European friends feel better about us. What we must do, according to Nutting, is precisely what in fact we have been doing day by day, namely, to make "a full and reassuring report" to all our NATO partners, and to discuss and agree with them "on future policies and procedures." A failure to do these things which we are doing, says Nutting quite solemnly, "would be playing Russia's game" beyond the point of safety.

IF THIS IS the kind of uninformed suspicion which exists in London, it is enough to make anyone despair of the effectiveness of a free press. Here are two allies, both speaking the same language, both enjoying free institutions, both able to print and to read whatever they choose, both committed to the same international ideals, and yet a writer with connections in official quarters in London suspects us of being so foolish and so disloyal that we are contemplating a two-power deal at the expense of Europe.

For my part, I do not expect us to be understood or trusted in Moscow. But we have, I submit, earned the right to be trusted by our closest allies. We do not betray our friends, and the suspicion that we are so glibly that Mikoyan can "sell" us into betraying our friends is an affront to the honor of America and an insult to its intelligence.

THE PUBLIC PART of Mikoyan's visit seems to me to show that between the Communist world and ours there can on the great issues be little free and open communication. We live in very different worlds. We see things with very different eyes. We judge them with very different minds. The best we can do is to negotiate cautiously more or less at arm's length.

But the kind of full understanding needed for political cooperation is a very long way off. It is, therefore, absurd to invite Mikoyan to subject himself to a public exhibition like "Meet the Press" and it is absurd for Mikoyan to accept the invitation to do that. The show was as useful as an attempt to mate a whale which lives in the sea with an elephant which lives on the land.

AS TO THE RESULTS of Mikoyan's tour, they cannot be measured by the crowds and the headlines, by the curiosity of the people who saw him or by their courtesy. The results of the visit will be tested as we see whether or not we are moving towards negotiations on the whole German question. Surely that was the real objective of Mikoyan's visit, as it is the objective of the Soviet gambit in Berlin.

His purpose cannot have been to enter a popularity contest, for which he is as little qualified as he would be for a beauty contest. If the purpose of his visit was to open up the German question, he has not gone home empty-handed. The President and Dulles have shown that they hope to make the German question negotiable if Moscow is seriously interested in negotiating.

These Figures Will Tell You Just How Much School Tax You'll Pay

As Marin's school districts propose higher tax rates and bond authorizations for building new schools this spring, their somewhat beleaguered taxpayers sharpen their pencils and try to figure out how much money will come out of their collective pockets.

Of particular interest to such taxpayers is a sheet of figures drawn up by the staff of Leon A. deLisle, county auditor-controller. It shows exactly what residents of each school district pay per $100 assessed valuation this fiscal year.

LOWEST RATE

College of Marin, at 35 cents, has the lowest tax rate of any school district in the county. The junior college district covers the southern two-thirds of the county. It does not include Novato or the West Marin area.

Taxpayers in the county's 25 elementary school districts this year were levied the following rates per $100 assessed valuation (the tax rate quoted includes retirement annuity payments, contract retirement and payment into other special funds where they are levied in addition to the basic tax rate):

American Valley Joint, 74 cents; Bolinas, $1.15; Burdell, 80 cents; Dixie, $2.25 plus 31 cents for bond redemption; Fairfax, $1.61 plus 32 cents for bond redemption; Kentfield, $2.12 plus 31 cents for bond redemption; Laguna Joint, 80 cents; Lagunitas, $1.85 plus 28 cents bond redemption; Larkspur, $1.71 plus 26 cents bond redemption; Lincoln, 84 cents; Marshall, 83 cents.

MILL VALLEY RATE
In Mill Valley the rate is $1.92 plus 30 cents bond redemption; Nicasio, 86 cents plus 37 cents bond redemption; Pt. Reyes, 74 cents; Reed Union, $2.30 plus 47 cents bond redemption; Ross, $1.71 plus 34 cents bond redemption; San Anselmo, $1.61 plus 29 cents bond redemption; San Jose, $1.69 plus 50 cents bond redemption.

SAN QUENTIN'S TAX RATE
San Quentin's tax rate is $1.16; San Rafael Elementary, $1.85 plus 28 cents bond redemption; Sausalito, $1.79 plus 20 cents bond redemption; Stinson Beach, 83 cents plus 13 cents bond redemption; Tomales Union, 80 cents; Union Joint, 85 cents, and West Marin Union, 88 cents plus 23 cents bond redemption.

NOVATO, WHICH HAS A UNIFIED elementary and high school district, has a tax rate of $3.87 plus 68 cents for bond redemption.

HIGH SCHOOL TAX
Residents of all other elementary school districts are also residents of high school districts and must pay high school tax in addition to their elementary school tax.

The San Rafael High School District tax is $1.17 plus nine cents for bond redemption. The high school district includes Dixie, San Jose, San Quentin and San Rafael elementary school districts.

The Tamalpais Union High School District tax rate this year is $1.35 plus 20 cents for bond redemption. Voters of the district will go to the polls on Feb. 17 to decide if the basic tax should be increased 65 cents. The high school district includes Bolinas, Fairfax, Kentfield, Lagunitas, Larkspur, Mill Valley, Nicasio, Reed Union, Ross, San Anselmo, Sausalito and Stinson Beach elementary school districts.

The San Rafael and Tamalpais high school districts together form the Marin Junior College District and its residents pay the 35-cent junior college tax.

The Tomales Joint Union High School District has a tax total of 77 cents per $100 assessed valuation. The district includes American Valley, Marshall, Pt. Reyes, Tomales Union Elementary and West Marin school districts.

Youngsters in the Burdell, Laguna Joint, Lincoln and Union Joint elementary districts go on to Petaluma Joint Union High School District in Sonoma County, which has a $1.27 tax rate.

Malpractice Suits Decline, Medical Society Informed

The number of malpractice suits against doctors in Northern California declined last year for the first time in more than 10 years, the Marin Medical Society was told last night, but the cost of those suits continued its upward spiral.

Howard (Hap) Hassard, executive director of the California Medical Assn., told the society's monthly meeting at the Meadow Club that it was too early to tell whether last year's decline is just a plateau before resumption of the upward trend which has been in evidence since 1947.

Three major forces have caused the upturn of suits against doctors, Hassard declared. First, and most important, is major changes in court procedure which have made it easier for patients to sue. Second is the widespread social attitude that someone must pay if a person suffers a disabling injury. Third, inflation has caused juries to give "jumbo sized" verdicts, feeling that the less a dollar buys, the more dollars should be awarded to the plaintiffs.

Three changes have made the court rules more unfavorable for the doctor, Hassard went on.

First is that the statute of limitations has been broadened to allow filing of a suit within a year of the time the patient finds out about what happened to him.

Second, the application of the policy of res ipsa loquitur in effect makes a doctor prove his innocence, rather than being proven guilty. A patient does not have to produce a witness to show lack of care, but the doctor must prove he used care, Hassard said.

Third, he claimed, courts accept any admission of fault, even casual remarks by the doctor, as proof of malpractice — even such a phrase as, "Boy, I sure made a mess of that, didn't I?"

The most "revolutionary" plan proposed to reduce such suits, is the medical expert panel system being set up jointly by medical societies and bar associations, Hassard said.

The panels, now in operation in Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego, are made up of doctors expert in various fields of medicine. When a lawyer has a malpractice case, he can call on a doctor on the panel best trained in the field involved. The doctor will examine the medical facts and then in pre-trial consultation or on the stand during a trial give expert testimony of the presence or absence of medical error.

In Los Angeles, where the plan originated, "the panel members have been used hundreds of times," Hassard said. "The large majority of the attorneys involved reacted favorably."

The plan is to expand this system to other communities, said Hassard.

He reported, "Many incipient suits were nipped in the bud through explanation by the panel member to the attorney and the patient of exactly what happened and why."

Most malpractice suits "are caused by the breakdown of communication between the doctor and his patient," said Hassard. "These cases can be cured."

The panels are proving to judges that there is no "conspiracy of silence" in the medical profession. "If the panels can remove this belief and halt the extension of res ipsa loquitur, they will be worth their weight in diamonds," said Hassard.

In the question and answer period, conducted by Dr. Dallas Wagner, program chairman, Hassard said a doctor or panel of doctors who discover a case of malpractice, should remember that their primary duty is to the public.

Dr. Rolla Hess, president of the local society, presided at the meeting.

The medical auxiliary, meeting at the same time in a different room, saw skiing pictures taken by Dr. Frank How-

Fire Chiefs To Meet Tonight

The Marin County Fire Chiefs Assn. will meet for the first time in the newly remodeled Tiburon Firehouse tonight at 8 o'clock when the Tiburon Fire Department hosts the monthly dinner meeting.

Fred W. Ruhland, retired Kentfield fire chief, will be honored guest. Tiburon Volunteer Fire Department members will serve the 9:30 p.m. dinner, according to Chief Jack Ishmael.

Belvedere Fire Chief Lawrence Mersereau is president of the countywide group.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
(Advertisement)
1. NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Board of Trustees of Larkspur School District will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation, equipment and services for the complete construction of the Larkspur Elementary School, Larkspur, California.
Bids will be opened and read publicly on Thursday, February 19, 1959, at or about 4:00 p.m. at the office of the District Superintendent, 1019 Market St., San Francisco 3, California. Bids shall be submitted in an envelope clearly marked "BID" and filed with the District Superintendent at the time fixed for opening same.
3. Each bid shall be accompanied by a certified check or bidder's bond for not less than ten per cent (10%) of the amount bid, payable to said Board, which shall be given as a guarantee that the successful bidder will enter into a contract satisfactory to said Board, and which shall be deemed liquidated damages for and surrendered to said Board upon failure or refusal to do so. All bonds required shall be issued by surety company satisfactory to said Board.
4. All bids shall be submitted on the Bid Form obtainable at the office of the Architect, John Reid & Partners, 1019 Market St., San Francisco 3, California, and must be in accordance with the Instructions to Bidders on file in said office. Each bid shall include specifications on file in the office of the Architect, where copies may be obtained upon deposit of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) for one hundred per cent (100%) of the contract price, and a labor and materials bond in an amount equal to fifty per cent (50%) of the contract price, together with proof of adequate workmen's compensation insurance and other insurance as specified in the General Conditions.
6. Attention is directed to Sections 4100 and 4108 of the Government Code concerning subcontractors.
7. No bidder may withdraw his bid for a period of thirty (30) days after the date set for the opening thereof.
8. Pursuant to law, said Board has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and the general prevailing rate of legal hourly and overtime work for each craft or type of workman needed to execute the contract.
9. The prevailing rates so determined are as follows:

Surviving Spouse Can File Joint Return

By PETER J. WIKEL, CPA

If your wife or husband died in 1956, or later, you may still be able to compute your tax as though you were filing a joint return. This usually makes quite a difference in your tax bill and is advantageous to you.

In general, the term "surviving spouse" means a taxpayer whose spouse died during either of the two taxable years preceding 1958, and who maintains as his home a household which constitutes, for the taxable year, the principal place of abode (as a member of such a household) of a dependent who is a son, stepson, daughter or stepdaughter of the taxpayer, and with respect to whom the taxpayer is entitled to a deduction for the taxable year.

However, there are some limitations. A taxpayer shall not be considered to be a surviving spouse if the taxpayer has remarried at any time before the close of the taxable year, or unless, for the taxpayer's taxable year during which his spouse dies, a joint return could have been made under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

A taxpayer may obtain the full benefits of income splitting for a period of two years after the year in which occurs the death of his spouse, if he has not remarried and if he maintains as his home a household which is the principal place of abode of a child or stepchild with respect to whom the taxpayer is entitled to a dependency deduction.

If a taxpayer does not qualify as a "surviving spouse" he may still qualify as "head of household" if he meets the requirements. Thus a taxpayer on the calendar year basis whose spouse died in 1956 may, for the taxable year 1958, qualify as a "surviving spouse." However, in 1959, he must determine whether he can meet the requirements for "head of household."

Counselors Get Awards At Prison

Warden Fred R. Dickson of San Quentin Prison announced today that certificates of recognition have been awarded to employees of the institution who have served as group counselors for one year or more since the introduction of the program in 1955.

Group counseling, he explained, is a program to help inmates understand themselves and their problems. Nearly 2,000 men participated in the informal weekly meetings. Discussions include such problems as narcotics addiction, alcoholism, marital friction, financial pressures, emotional disturbances and the myriad other problems that tend to send men to prison.

NEWS VIEWS

By LEON C. SMITH

Some members of the human race really go out of their way to look for trouble. They have to poke wasp's nests or they aren't happy... and even then they're not happy. For instance, there's a Dr. Quade at the University of Connecticut who says in an article that the happiest wives are the ones who refrain from handling the money. They let the man of the house make the financial decisions (and the financial mistakes as well, of course). And this world-shattering advice comes at a time when the men thought they had the volcano under control!

If you could win a MILLION FRANCES! That isn't hay, is it? Well someone, and it could just as well be YOU, in the Bay Area WILL win a MILLION FRANCES within the next 12 weeks, or maybe the winner will come up next week. And it is simple! The magic number is on the inside cover of "WIN A MILLION" match books that are free here at the J. E. French Co. Every hour a winning number will be announced. If you have the winning number bring it in to us here at the J. E. French Co. and win a million francs. If you happen to own a '58 PLYMOUTH, and have the winning number on the match book, you just can't believe how lucky you will be in that case. Come on in and we will tell you everything and give you a match book. J. E. FRENCH CO., 1542 Fourth St., San Rafael. DODGE - PLYMOUTH-SIMCA Marin distributors.

Guest Speaker For Adventists

Stanley M. Jefferson will be the guest speaker at the Fairfax Seventh-day Adventist Church, 75 Park road at the 11 a.m. worship hour tomorrow.

Jefferson is religious liberty secretary of the Northern California Conference of Seventh-day Adventists at Oakland. Title of his sermon is "The Road to Ruin."

Tomorrow is Religious Liberty Day in the Adventist churches.

Court's Workload Up 130 Per Cent Since '53

The workload in Marin Municipal Court has jumped by about 130 per cent since the municipal courts were organized in January, 1953, Judge Richard M. Sims disclosed in his annual report.

In the first year, 23,565 documents were filed in municipal court. These included traffic cases, civil, criminal and small claims cases. A total of 18,587 cases was disposed of by the judges and the clerks.

In 1958, documents totalled 53,219, and dispositions totalled 51,662.

The biggest bulk of the cases involve parking and traffic. These totalled 48,450 last year. There were 2,148 civil actions, 1,521 misdemeanors, 266 felonies and 834 small claims. The two judges handled 8,860 cases in court, including 941 contested cases that resulted in 34 jury trials.

In 1953, the municipal court judge handled 4,497 cases, including 708 contested cases resulting in 19 jury trials.

Revenues from fines and fees taken in by Marin Municipal Court, have grown from $130,000 in 1953-54 to $320,000 in 1957-58 fiscal year. The total expense of running the municipal courts, including salaries for judges and their staff, rose from $61,000 in 1953-54 to $99,000 in 1957-58. During the past three years revenues have been running about triple the expenses.

Lot Split Approved

The Belvedere Planning Commission Wednesday approved Ernest Mendenhall's application for re-subdivision of two lots, subject to structures being built five feet from the side property line, according to Commissioner Thomas L. Wark. The 30-minute meeting was held in the city offices.
